WHY JACKRABBITS?

Good question. No one knows for sure. The two most often advanced stories involve either a newspaper reporter referring to a State team as "quick as Jackrabbits" after a 1905 football game with the University of Minnesota or that the name was borrowed from the SDSU student yearbook "The Jackrabbit" about 1907.

• JACKS FACTS •

SDSU has had more athletes, 29, than any other team in the country selected Academic All-America since the NCAA Division II Wrestling Coaches Association began selecting the team in 1986.

• JACKRABBIT COACH JASON LILES •

Where Jason Liles has gone, success has followed.

After winning two NAIA national championships at Montana State University-Northern (formerly Northern Montana), he was named head coach at South Dakota State prior to the 1993-94 season and has promptly established SDSU as one of the powers in NCAA Division II.

And the Jacks are still climbing the upward ladder.

Last season, SDSU won its first North Central Conference championship since 1980. Liles was named NCC Coach of the Year. After coming within 1.5 points of NCC champion Nebraska-Omaha a year earlier, the Jacks eliminated the suspense early in the '97 putting six wrestlers in the finals of the conference tournament in Grand Forks. It translated to an 80-65 victory over the runner-up Mavericks.

State followed that with a fourth place finish at the NCAA Division II tournament, the fourth straight top-five finish by the Jacks who have been fourth, fifth, fourth and fourth during Liles' reign.

SDSU has an 18-4 dual record over the past two seasons and two of those losses have been to Division I champion University of Iowa. In 1996, SDSU met Iowa in a dual at Philip, SD; in '97, the match was at Spencer, IA.

In 1993-94, he took over the South Dakota State wrestling program and promptly guided the Jackrabbits to a fourth place finish in the NCAA Division II tournament. That marked the highest national finish for the Jacks in 25 years and the first time ever that SDSU had two individual national champions (Chad Lamer at 177 and Justin Blasius at 190) in the same season.

Liles, known for his intense work ethic, came to SDSU after a nine-year stay at MSU-Northern in Havre, MT. During his tenure there, he guided NMC to the very top of the NAIA wrestling world.

Over the last four seasons at Northern, his teams sandwiched back-to-back national championships (1991 and 1992) around a pair of national runnerup finishes (1990 and 1993).

He was named NAIA national coach of the year by his peers in 1991 and 1992, and was NAIA District 12 Coach of the year four times (1986, 1988, 1990 and 1992). In 1992, Liles was selected to coach the National Wrestling Coaches Association NCAA Division I All-Star Classic at the University of Iowa.

His teams at MSU-N won NAIA District 12 championships in 1988, 1990, 1991 and 1992. During his career at MSU-N, he coached six individual national champions including the wrestler voted Outstanding Wrestler at the 1990 national tournament, and produced 48 All-Americans.

And his teams produced eight academic All-Americans, with the team showing a 3.00 cumulative grade point average for 1987-1993.

In dual meet competition, Liles' teams were 89-33 while competing against such teams as the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, Purdue University, University of Wisconsin-Madison, and NCAA Division II powers North Dakota State, University of North Dakota and Nebraska-Omaha.

Prior to joining the staff at MSU-N, Liles was assistant wrestling coach at Miami University in Ohio (1981-84). He played an integral part in developing three NCAA Division I All-Americans. Miami won the Mid-America Conference title in 1984 and had an alternate to the 1984 USA Olympic Freestyle team.

Liles was head coach Arcadia High School in Arcadia, Ohio, for two seasons, producing back-to-back Blanchard Valley Conference championships in 1980 and 1981 when his teams were 20-6 in duals.

Liles is a 1979 graduate of Bowling Green State University in Ohio where he was chosen Most Valuable Wrestler his last three seasons (1977-79). A four-year letterman and starter, he left Bowling Green as the winningest wrestler in the university's history. He was Mid-America Conference runnerup in 1979 and twice qualified for the NCAA Division I tournament.

Liles added a Master's Degree from Miami University in 1982.

He is married to the former Holly Dees of Kremlin, MT. They have two sons, Walker and Hunter.

• JACKS FACTS •

SDSU is the largest college or university in South Dakota. Peggy Gordon Elliott will become the 17th president of SDSU on January 1, 1998. Her appointment was announced by the Board of Regents on October 24.

• SDSU OFFERS SOMETHING SPECIAL •

When a university has something very special to offer, people sense it. South Dakota State University is one of those universities. We don't pretend to be something we're not. Instead, we take great pride in what we are - a mid-sized university with some very big qualities.

SDSU is enormous when you look at the number of programs offered, its research and work experiences, and the clubs students can get involved in. It's large when you consider the resources here that will make better prepared graduates looking for their first job. Resources like the CAP Center will help with career counseling and placement services.

SDSU is small when you look at its friendly, open campus and discussion-style classes. It's small when you see the kind of social interaction here that's only possible on a tightly-knit campus. There are no social ladders to climb here.

South Dakota State was founded as the state's only land-grant institution in 1881. It is the very essence of what our university is all about. A land-grant institution is directed to educate the people of its state and to solve its problems through academics, research and extension programs.

Today, our university has grown both in size and scope. We are South Dakota's largest university, and the problems we solve reach far beyond the borders of our state.

Diversity has always been a trademark of an SDSU education. Our students choose from over 2,500 courses offered each year. This large selection of courses offers students many opportunities to learn and grow that they would not find at many other colleges.

Offering a large number of programs, though, has little importance unless the academic standards remain high. That's why South Dakota State continually works to provide quality programs for its students. These efforts result in the University remaining accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools - the largest accrediting agency in the nation.

South Dakota State's faculty is well known for its excellence in teaching. Of the 475 full-time faculty members, 70% hold doctorate degrees. Conducting research, writing books and presenting papers at national conferences are the reasons many SDSU professors are nationally known in their fields.

They are committed to intellectual inquiry and have experience both in and out of the classroom. We have faculty exchange agreements with universities in the People's Republic of China, Russia, Great Britain, Mexico, and South Korea. These exchanges allow faculty to gain international experience and incorporate that knowledge into their classrooms at SDSU.

Personal attention is not the exception here, it's the norm. A physics professor was instrumental in organizing a group to help raise funds for a graduate student who had a bone marrow transplant. Every semester a faculty member invites all the women students in the College of Engineering to her house for an evening of food and discussion.

While our faculty remain active in their fields, their first commitment is to teaching and to the students they teach. There is one faculty member for every 17 students here. This low ratio and an average class size of only 25 allows students the close, personal attention from faculty that they want and deserve.

Brookings is the home of SDSU. A town of 16,250, it is located on the eastern edge of South Dakota just 20 miles from the Minnesota line.

South Dakota friendliness has always been the key to Brookings and the campus community. We have a casual, friendly atmosphere here that quickly makes everyone feel like they fit in. SDSU students, will find that they are welcomed both on and off the campus.

Athletically, SDSU is a charter member of the North Central Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, formed in 1922.

SDSU's success has not been confined to one or two sports. The Jackrabbits were fourth in the 1996 Sears Director's Cup and seventh in the 1997 competition recognizing the top all-around athletic programs, men and women combined, in NCAA Division II. The Jacks have at least one championship in each of the sports sanctioned by the NCC in men's competition except soccer.

And SDSU's success hasn't been limited to conference competition. The SDSU wrestling teams have competed in every College Division - NCAA Division II national tournament. The Jacks were fourth in last year's NCAA meet. Brookings was the site for national tournaments in 1973, 1979 and 1993.

• JACKS FACTS •

SDSU has finished in the top ten of the Sears Directors' Cup competition each of the past two years. The Sears Cup competition honors the top all-around athletic programs in the country. SDSU was fourth in Division II in 1996 and seventh in 1997.

• JACKS WIN NCC CHAMPIONSHIP •

Jason Liles hopes 1996-97 was a break-through season for the South Dakota State wrestling team.

It isn't like his first three seasons at SDSU weren't productive. He guided the Jackrabbits to Top Five finishes in the NCAA Division II tournament each of his first three seasons and finished 1996 with ten straight dual victories.

But the 1997 team did something no Jackrabbit squad had done since 1980 - won the North Central Conference championship. "Hopefully, that will convince our kids that they can do it every year," Liles said.

After losing the league title to Nebraska-Omaha by 1½ points a year ago, the Jacks eliminated the suspense early this year, putting six wrestlers in the finals of the conference tournament in Grand Forks. It translated to an 80-65 victory over the runner-up Mavericks.

"We had a superb conference/regional tournament," Liles said. "Our light weights came through all season - that was an emphasis from the beginning."

SDSU's finalists at the conference meet included wrestlers in the first four weights. Junior Travis King, at 142, won his second straight league title.

State's victory in the conference tournament vaulted SDSU into the top spot in the final NCAA Division II poll of the season, and the six finalists advanced to the national championship tournament in Fargo March 14-15.

For the second time - both since Liles has been the coach - the Jacks had two national champions, senior Adam Feldman at 126 and sophomore Ryan Resel at heavyweight.

Resel's pin over the No. 1 seed in the championship match gave the Jacks the fourth place trophy - the second straight year SDSU has wrestled that spot away from another team with a pin in State's last match of the tournament. One year earlier, it was a pin by Chad Lamer in the 190 finals.

While Feldman, 134 Josh Sammons and 177 Jeremy Pascoe are seniors, Resel will lead a solid returning group which will including 118 pound All-American Chad Wickman plus Pat Timm, a 1996 all-American who redshirted this year. Two-time NCC 142-pound champion Travis King will also return. Top priority in recruiting will be 134, 142 and 158.

During Liles' four years as head coach, the Jacks are 6-0 in national championship matches - with all four of the national champions South Dakota natives - Justin Blasius (190-1994) from Kimball, Chad Lamer (177-1994 & 1995; 190-1996) from Colton, Adam Feldman (126-1997) from Mitchell and Ryan Resel (heavyweight - 1997) from Miller.

SDSU has an 18-4 dual record over the past two seasons and two of those losses have been to Division I champion University of Iowa. In 1996, SDSU met Iowa in a dual at Philip, SD; this season, the match was at Spencer, IA.

JACKS HAVE THREE ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

SDSU put three individuals on the 1997 NCAA Division II All-Academic Wrestling Team, selected by the members of the wrestling coaches association.

Senior Josh Sammons is on the first team while junior Howard Fullhart and sophomore Chad Wickman were on the second team.

SDSU has now had 29 academic All-Americans since the coaches began selecting the team in 1986. As a team, the Jacks ranked seventh in the nation with a team grade point average of 3.002.

It's the third straight year Sammons, who has a 3.70 GPA majoring in athletic training, has been on the Academic All-America team. He finished second in the North Central Conference at 134, had a 25-9 season mark and 93-51 career mark. Fullhart earned Academic All-America honors for the second time. He has a 3.43 GPA majoring in wildlife and fisheries. Fullhart was fourth in the NCC at 158 and finished the season 16-13. He now has a 55-33 career record.

Wickman won the NCC title at 118 pounds and earned All-America honors with a sixth-place finish at the NCAA Division II tournament. He finished the season 21-9, giving him a 44-23 record. He has a 3.27 GPA majoring in athletic training.

LILES NAMED NCC COACH OF THE YEAR

Liles was voted North Central Conference Coach of the Year.

Before coming to SDSU, Liles spent nine seasons as head coach at Northern Montana, winning eight conference titles while claiming the NAIA national championship twice (1991 and 1992) with a pair of second place finishes sandwiched around the titles. He was NAIA national coach of the year twice, and earned NAIA District 12 Coach of the Year four times (1986, 1988, 1990 and 1992). His NMC teams had an 89-33 dual record giving him a 113-48 record as head coach.

Liles is a 1979 graduate of Bowling Green State University in Ohio.

He was a four-year starter on the wrestling team and was chosen team Most Valuable Wrestler three straight seasons (1977-78-79). He left as the winningest wrestler in Bowling Green history. He was Mid-America Conference runner-up in 1979 and twice qualified for the NCAA Division I tournament.
