Head Coach: MARY BYRNE
Graduate Assistant Coach: HOLLY PEDERSON
With seven letterwinners returning, the South Dakota State University volleyball team looks to put together back-to-back winning campaigns for the first time in four years, when the Jacks went 27-20 in 1989 and 28-7 in 1990 under coach Janet Stumps.

Mary Byrne, beginning her second season at the helm, fashioned a 19-12 mark overall and a 4-5 slate in the North Central Conference last year. But the success of the inaugural season aside, Byrne knows that if the Jackrabbits can polish fundamental areas this season they can challenge for a top spot in the highly competitive NCC.

"Heading into fall camp we were way ahead of last year," said Byrne. "The girls have worked hard during the off-season to improve ball handling skills and become better conditioned so we are a much more confident team than a year ago."

This year, the Jacks will build around seniors April Swanson-Tordsen, Sarah Storms, Jenny Boll and Dana Fusco.

"Our seniors will need to provide leadership and set an example on the court," said Byrne, who joined the SDSU staff after coaching at Marshall, MN High School.

"Last year we only had one senior and our floor leadership suffered. We hope that will change this year."

Swanson-Tordsen, a 6-1 middle blocker, is just 24 solo blocks behind SDSU all-time leader Sarah Sargent, who finished her career with 198 deflections back in 1990. Last year Swanson-Tordsen led the team with 171 total blocks, including 68 solos.

If the name sounds familiar but doesn’t ring a bell, April was wed this past summer to Jamie Tordsen.

Storms, a 5-10 middle blocker, is sixth all-time in digs with 675, and tied for seventh in solo blocks with 100.

Boll, a 5-8 outside hitter, transferred to SDSU from the University of Minnesota last season. She came on to lead the club in kills (304) and digs (278) last year.

Fusco, a 5-9 defensive specialist, is recovering from a shoulder injury and hopes to be at full strength for conference play. She posted 164 digs in 93 games played last season.

In addition, SDSU will rely on the setting and hitting of juniors Jenni Dold and Reagan Adolphson.

Dold is currently third on the all-time set assists chart with 1,492 in two seasons, including 904 last year. She was also second last season in digs with 233.

Adolphson has 352 digs in two seasons while playing in 175 games. She is a strong attacker and has notched 197 kills in her career.

"Jenni Dold is our team captain and the focal point of the offense," says Byrne. "She is one of the premier players in the league.

"And Reagan is a powerful hitter on the left side. We are looking for excellent years from both players."

Setter Sara Woodman also received playing time last year, while four newcomers, including freshmen Arika Sanders and Merridee Peterson, sophomore Nicole Nikolaisen, along with junior college transfer Kathy Kelly will battle for court experience.

"Kathy comes in with a wealth of junior college experience and she will be an impact player for us," says Byrne.

"But looking up and down the roster we will have much more talented depth than a year ago and with the double round-robin conference schedule this year that will be a plus."
HEAD COACH
MARY BYRNE

Byrne, a native of Marshall, Minnesota, burst on to the SDSU scene last season after coaching two years at Marshall, MN High School. Last year the Jacks were looking for their first .500 campaign since 1990 and the club delivered, going 19-12 and finishing fifth in the rugged North Central Conference.

But her list of plaudits extends much further than last season’s successful campaign with the Jacks.

In 1992, Byrne was named Region 2 AA and Minnesota Class AA High School Coach of the Year after guiding the Marshall Tigers to a 26-4 record and a second-place finish in the Minnesota State High School Tournament.

A three-time Big Eight Conference volleyball selection, Byrne received her bachelor’s degree from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln in 1985, playing four years with the talented Cornhusker volleyball team.

Byrne has served as the assistant volleyball coach at Southwest State University in Marshall from 1987-1990, coached the Southwest Junior Volleyball Program and she has also coached and directed the Marshall Junior Olympic Volleyball Program.

GRADUATE ASSISTANT
HOLLY PEDERSON

Pederson, a 1993 graduate of Southwest State University in Marshall, MN, begins her second year as a graduate assistant with coach Byrne and the Jackrabbits.

Pederson played volleyball in 1989 and 1990 for the Golden Mustangs, but injuries forced her to miss her final two seasons of eligibility.

Pederson has been the head coach of Marshall High School’s 9th grade program and she has worked with the Southwest Junior Volleyball Program prior to pursuing her master’s degree at South Dakota State.

NOTES
• SDSU claimed the SDAIAW championship five times (1972, 74, 75, 77, and 80) and were runners-up four times (1973, 78, 79, 81).
• SDSU's last post-season appearance, excluding the NCC Tournament, was in 1981.
When a university has something very special to offer, people sense it. South Dakota State University is one of those universities. We don't pretend to be something we're not. Instead, we take great pride in what we are - a mid-sized university with some very big qualities.

SDSU is enormous when you look at the number of programs offered, its research and work experiences, and the clubs students can get involved in. It's large when you consider the resources here that will make better prepared graduates looking for their first job. Resources like the CAP Center will help with career counseling and placement services.

SDSU is small when you look at its friendly, open campus and discussion-style classes. It's small when you see the kind of social interaction here that's only possible on a tightly-knit campus. There are no social ladders to climb here.

South Dakota State was founded as the state's only land-grant institution in 1881. It is the very essence of what our university is all about. A land-grant institution is directed to educate the people of its state and to solve its problems through academics, research and extension programs.

Today, our university has grown both in size and scope. We are South Dakota's largest university and will top 9,000 students this fall. Last year's enrollment of 8,966 was an all-time record.

The problems we solve reach far beyond the borders of our state.

Diversity has always been a trademark of an SDSU education. Our students choose from over 2,500 courses offered each year. This large selection of courses offers students many opportunities to learn and grow that they would not find at many other colleges.

Offering a large number of programs, though, has little importance unless the academic standards remain high. That's why South Dakota State continually works to provide quality programs for its students.

These efforts result in the University remaining accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools - the largest accrediting agency in the nation.

South Dakota State's faculty is well known for its excellence in teaching. Of the 475 full-time faculty members, 70 per cent hold doctorate degrees. Conducting research, writing books and presenting papers at national conferences are the reasons many SDSU professors are nationally known in their fields.

They are committed to intellectual inquiry and have experience both in and out of the classroom. We have faculty exchange agreements with universities in the People's Republic of China, Russia, Great Britain, Mexico and South Korea. These exchanges allow faculty to gain international experience and incorporate that knowledge into their classrooms at SDSU.

Personal attention is not the exception here, it's the norm. A physics professor was instrumental in organizing a group to help raise funds for a graduate student who had a bone marrow transplant. Every semester a faculty member invites all the women students in the College of Engineering to her house for an evening of food and discussion.

While our faculty remain active in their fields, their first commitment is to teaching and to the students they teach. There is one faculty member for every 17 students here. This low ratio and an average class size of only 25 allows students the close, personal attention from faculty that they want and deserve.

Brookings is a community of 16,250, it is located on the eastern edge of South Dakota just 20 miles from the Minnesota line.

South Dakota friendliness has always been the key to Brookings and the campus community. We have a casual, friendly atmosphere here that quickly makes everyone feel like they fit in.
