Heading into his fifth season as head coach at South Dakota State University, Lang Wedemeyer has accepted many challenges and been rewarded for his efforts in establishing the Jackrabbit women's soccer program.

First, Wedemeyer was presented the task of quickly assembling a roster. Despite having only six months from the time he was hired in February 2000 until SDSU's first match, Wedemeyer guided an inexperienced Jackrabbit team to a 5-12 record in the inaugural 2000 season.

The next season, with a team which included 14 freshmen, Wedemeyer was named the 2001 North Central Conference Coach of the Year as he guided the Jackrabbits to a 13-6-1 overall record and a berth in the four-team North Central Conference postseason tournament. SDSU also appeared in the Central Region rankings for the first time in school history.

In his third season, the Jackrabbits posted their second consecutive winning season under Wedemeyer’s direction by posting a 10-8 record.

Last season, Wedemeyer guided the Jacks to a 8-5-6 record, making it the third consecutive year the Bills finished with a winning record. With a squad posting the fifth lowest goals against average in Division II, the Jacks qualified for the NCC postseason tournament for the second time in three years.

Heading into Division I play this year presents Wedemeyer with another challenge. Wedemeyer’s 2004 team must take on 10 new opponents, with 11 of those teams being Division I schools. Wedemeyer enters the 2004 season with a 36-31-7 career record, a .534 winning percentage.

In addition to starting the women’s soccer program at SDSU, Wedemeyer also has been involved in other aspects of the South Dakota and national soccer community. He is a National Soccer Coaches Association of America regional director, overseeing all the coaching certification in the Dakotas, Minnesota, Nebraska, Wyoming and Colorado. He has traveled throughout the state conducting coaching certification and running clinics over the past four years.

In the summer of 2002, Wedemeyer added another title to his list of coaching credentials as he served as an assistant coach for the Olympic Development Program Region II 1985 Team, which served as a precursor to the Under-19 United States Women’s National Team. He was an assistant coach for the Region II 1987 Team in 2003-04, taking the team on a European tour. This past year he was selected from Region II to help evaluate and select members of the Girl’s Under-17 National Team at the Home Depot Center in California.

A native of Roanoke, Va., Wedemeyer was director of coaching and women’s coordinator for the Roanoke Valley Youth Soccer Club prior to taking over the SDSU women’s program. His three-year tenure as the club’s assistant executive director included overseeing all 28 teams and their coaches, as well as coaching under-18 and under-14 girls soccer teams. Wedemeyer also served three years as the director of the Western District Olympic Development Program for girls and boys and coached the under-14 Virginia Olympic Development Team for two seasons.

One of the youngest coaches in the United States to obtain all levels of coaching certification, Wedemeyer holds nine professional soccer coaching licenses, including a United States Soccer Federation “A” license and the NSCAA Premier diploma.

Wedemeyer began his collegiate playing career at Virginia Tech University, where he was voted the Hokies’ best defensive player two years in a row. He later transferred to Old Dominion University (Va.), where he captained the team and earned second-team academic All-America honors in 1994. He earned a bachelor’s degree in English in 1994 and added a master’s degree in sports management from Old Dominion in 1996.

While pursuing his master’s degree, Wedemeyer served three years as an assistant coach for the Old Dominion men’s soccer program. In addition, his coaching experience consists of appearances at several soccer camps and clinics, including serving as head counselor of the University of North Carolina Women’s Soccer Camp since 1995.

Wedemeyer also has extensive professional playing experience in the United Soccer Leagues. He played three years for his hometown Roanoke Wrath before playing with the Sioux Falls Spitfire at the beginning of the team’s first season in 2001.

He and his wife, Tabitha, and their infant son, Brooks, reside in Brookings.
Assistant Coach Gretta Grenz

Gretchen “Gretta” Grenz begins her third season with the Jackrabbit women’s soccer coaching staff as assistant coach.

Prior to her appointment at SDSU just before the start of the 2002 season, Grenz served as an assistant girls’ soccer coach at Chaska (Minn.) High School and coached several teams in the Chanhassen/Chaska Soccer Club program in the Twin Cities Metro Area.

A native of Bloomingdale, Florida, Grenz played collegiately at the University of Central Florida, a Division I program located in Orlando. She played on four consecutive Trans-America Athletic Conference championship teams from 1995-98, including the 1998 Golden Knight squad which qualified for the NCAA tournament.

Also in 1998, Grenz was named to the TAAC All-Academic Team. Following her playing career, Grenz remained at Central Florida as a student training assistant. She also served as a senior staff coach for the UCF Soccer Training Centers until completing a bachelor’s degree in management in May 2001.

She currently holds a “B” National Coaching License from the United States Soccer Federation, as well as a Level II Goalkeeping Diploma from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America.

In 2003, Grenz served as head coach of the Olympic Development Program for South Dakota’s under-15 girls’ team. This past summer, Grenz was head coach of Minnesota’s 1988 and 1992 Olympic Development Program teams.

She and her husband, Micah, and their 4-year-old daughter, Kaitlyn, reside in Brookings. They are expecting a child in March.

Becky Maynard

Graduate Assistant

Becky comes to South Dakota State after a solid career at Valparaiso University (Ind.), where she played both the field and at goalkeeper. SDSU will look to her to train and motivate its two goalkeepers as its moves into Division I competition.

Maynard currently holds a “D” National Coaching license. She has been the keeper coach at Elite Soccer training for two years, while also being the speed, agility and strength coach for the Northwest Indiana United soccer teams. In addition, she has been a Region II Olympic Development Program Coach-In-Training and keeper trainer. She was also named goal keeper coach at Culver Military Academy in Culver, Ind., last summer.

Maynard, a 2004 Valparaiso graduate is pursuing a master’s degree in sports administration. She is originally from Munster, Ind.

Sam Langford

Athletic Trainer

Sam will be in his first year working with the Jackrabbit women’s soccer program. He is a 2002 graduate of South Dakota State University and a second-year graduate assistant. Along with women’s soccer, he has primarily worked with the Jackrabbit basketball and baseball program during his time at SDSU.

Langford also has experience working with the Orthopedic Institute in Sioux Falls, as well as working in the SDSU training room.

Langford is pursuing a master’s degree in sports science. He is originally from Fulda, Minn.

2004 Jackrabbit Soccer

2004 SDSU Women's Soccer Media Guide – 5
Coming off a season in which they earned a berth in the North Central Conference post-season tournament for the second time in the program’s history and recorded its first win over a nationally ranked opponent, the South Dakota State women’s soccer team will take momentum into the 2004 season.

The Jackrabbits will look to blend veteran leadership with a young influx of talent to build upon the success earned last year as they begin playing in NCAA Division I. SDSU will get its first taste of that competition right out of the blocks as the Jacks will face Creighton, Marquette, Wisconsin-Milwaukee, George Washington, and Western Illinois in the first three weeks of the season.

“We have met this new challenge of Division I head on by scheduling several of the top teams in our region,” said head coach Lang Wedemeyer.

All 11 of SDSU’s matches against Division I opponents this season will be on the road or at neutral sites.

Last year, the Jacks got off to a promising 6-2-2 start, outscoring their opponents for the first two months 22-4. In October, the Jacks played four consecutive overtime games, losing to NCC champion Minnesota State, Mankato 1-0, winning a double overtime game against North Dakota by a goal and tying North Dakota State and St. Cloud State. After tying perennial NCC power Nebraska-Omaha in late October, the Jacks secured post-season play by beating Augustana 2-1 to end NCC play with 2-2-3 record in their final season of NCC play. In the conference tournament, SDSU lost a hard-fought 1-0 game to host Minnesota State, Mankato to close out the year with an 8-5-6 record.

With four of the returning starters being part of Wedemeyer’s first full recruiting class and many other key players returning, the future looks bright for SDSU soccer. Add in a talented recruiting class and the Jackrabbits should have quality depth to blend in with a group of 13 returning letterwinners.

“We are looking to lay the groundwork for this program’s future in Division I,” said Wedemeyer, who played and coached at Division I Old Dominion (Va.), prior to his arrival at SDSU in 2000. “I believe that our program has been and will continue to work toward changing our expectations, standards and daily environment that will better coincide with successful Division I programs around the region and around the country.” Wedemeyer said.

SDSU will go into the season with plenty of experience returning on the offensive side of the ball, but will look to replace four starters on defense. The Jacks took a blow this past offseason when sophomore defender Abby Drews suffered a knee injury for a third time. With Drews no longer available and All-Area goalkeeper Erin Miller graduated, the Jacks will turn to lone starting defender Maggie Eilers to anchor the defense.

Senior Brittany Frazier will return to goalkeep after a one-year hiatus and look to challenge for the starting position. Frazier is the all-time winningest goalie in Jackrabbit history and has compiled a record of 23-121 over her three-year career. Also returning at goalie is sophomore Jenn Davis, who played in five games during the 2003 campaign and will be looked upon to challenge Frazier for the starting position.

Along with Eilers, senior Jennifer Hasis, a three-year letterwinner, returns on the defensive side of the ball after playing in 14 games last year. Sophomore letterwinners Karoline Brause and Elise Bray also return. All three will be looked upon to step up their play and give the Jacks a solid foundation in front of the goal.

The Jacks signed a pair of standout defenders out of the high school ranks to help out on defense. Vanessa Passwaters, a defender out of Longmont, Colo., was a two-time first-team all-region selection at Niwot High School and was also named her conference’s athlete of the year. Liz Lane, a defender out of Des Moines, Iowa, was a Elite all-state selection and a first-team Class 2A all-state selection. Both will be looked upon to provide immediate help.

The midfield unit returns pretty much intact as all but one starter returns from last year. The midfield will look large for the Jackrabbits this year as SDSU will have nine years and more than 150 games of starting experience between returning senior starters Michelle Rahe, Alissa Berth and Amy Goodrich. Rahe will try to follow up an impressive junior campaign in which she scored four goals and earned second-team all-conference honors.

Both Berth and Goodrich have been standouts for the Jackrabbits in their three-year careers. Goodrich, who tied for second on the team in goals scored with five, will look to increase that total this year. Berth returns to the Jackrabbit starting lineup as a constant the past three years. Berth, who started every game for the Jackrabbits last year and recorded one goal and two assists, is expected to assume more of a defensive role for SDSU in 2004.

Sophomore Janel Brown and incoming freshmen Christine Wey and Laura Clark will battle for the other vacated midfield spot. The forward position for the Jackrabbits will have a lot of youthful faces in the lineup this year. Gone is four-year standout Melissa Speiser, who became the program’s first four-year player and led the team with six goals last year. The lone returning starter is senior Molly Scharfenkamp, who tied with Goodrich for the second most goals with five.

Scharfenkamp will blend with a mixture of sophomores and incoming players to try and provide the scoring punch this year for the Jacks. Sophomore Sarah Bryant will look to crack the starting lineup this year, after playing in 17 games last fall. Her best performance came against St. Tanka, where she recorded a hat trick with three goals in a school-record 10-0 victory. Valerie Schramm and Katherine Touby provide the Jacks with other options at the forward position. Touby will be coming off a redshirt year due to an injury, while Schramm will look to build on her first year in the program.

SDSU loaded up on young talent on the recruiting trail as it signed four forwards. Heather Hill, a freshman from Spearfish, was a four-time all-state selection, while Kelsey Worcester comes to SDSU as Iowa’s all-time state record holder in goals and points. Both will look to challenge for playing time their first year in the program. The Jacks also signed Lisa Robinson, a Rapid City standout who was a first-team all-state selection her senior year. All three should give the Jackrabbits an athletic group of young talent and should provide the Jacks with immediate help on the offensive side of the ball.

The Jackrabbits’ five-game home schedule begins Sept. 18 against Wayne State (Neb.) at Fishback Soccer Park.
Alissa is back for her fourth and final season as a starting midfielder for the Jackrabbits ... started every game during the 2003 season ... collected only goal of the season in a 2-0 victory at Southwest Minnesota State (9/6) ... also recorded assists in victories over Tanka (9/3) and Missouri-Rolla (9/28) ... earned honorable mention academic all-North Central Conference honors ... also three-year letterwinner for the Jackrabbit softball team the past three seasons splitting time between outfield and catcher.

2002: Alissa started the first 13 games of the 2002 season before missing the remainder of the season due to injury ... collected first two-goal game of her career as she scored both SDSU goals in 2-1 overtime victory over Southwest Baptist (Mo.) (9/21) ... also scored goals in victories over Missouri-Rolla (9/7) and Sioux Falls (9/11).

2001: Enjoyed a fine freshman campaign, earning honorable mention all-North Central Conference honors ... one of five players to start all 20 games ... scored game-winning goal at Minnesota State, Moorhead for her first collegiate goal ... ranked fourth on team in assists with five ... racked up assists in conference wins over Augustana and North Dakota.

Before SDSU: Earned Nebraska all-state honors as a midfielder during her senior season at Ralston High School ... also was a member of the state champion softball team.

Coach’s Comments: “Alissa came back from a major injury to continue her dominance in the midfield for us last year. With the loss of several of our starting backs, Alissa will most likely move back into a central defensive position.”

Personal: Majoring in early childhood education ... daughter of Lon and Jean Bernth ... birthdate is April 11, 1983 ... 2001 graduate of Ralston High School.

Total: 7-9-3
With a record enrollment of 10,561 students in the fall of 2003, South Dakota State University is the state’s largest institution of higher education.

EARLY HISTORY

Located in Brookings, SDSU was authorized in 1881 by the Territorial Legislative Assembly and serves as the state’s land-grant institution. Territorial council member John O’Brien Scobey, failing to obtain the penitentiary for Brookings, managed to secure Dakota Agricultural College for his city. Although allocations fell short of the actual cost, the school was able to open in the fall of 1884 because the president, George Lilley, was willing to advance $500—one-third of his salary—to finish three rooms in the new Central Building. “Old Central” was soon joined by South (1885) and North (1887), forming the nucleus of campus for a decade and a half.

During the first year of operation, only preparatory classes were held. College classes started in 1885 with five teachers, 17 freshman and 61 preparatory students. Growth was slow and erratic for many years, but by the turn of the 20th century there were 242 students. By 1990, SDSU had an enrollment of more than 9,000 students.

Nearly 50,000 degrees have been granted since the college was chartered in 1881.

COLLEGES ESTABLISHED

The structure of the college became more complex as enrollments increased. The first nine chairs of instruction established in 1884 included agriculture, science, mathematics, English, modern languages, military tactics, veterinary science, practical business, political and domestic economy, and music.

By 1907, the year the name of the institution was changed to South Dakota State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, there were 22 departments on campus. Reorganization into the five divisions which formed the basis for the designation of colleges was completed under President Charles W. Pugsley in 1923.

In 1964, when “State College” was renamed South Dakota State University, there were six colleges; today degrees are offered through these eight colleges:
- Agricultural and Biological Sciences
- Arts and Science
- Education and Counseling
- Engineering
- Family and Consumer Sciences
- General Registration
- Nursing
- Pharmacy
- Graduate School

SDSU also offers degree programs through the Sioux Falls Center for Public Higher Education (USDSU). Evening, RDTN, Internet and off-campus courses are coordinated through the Office of Academic Affairs and Outreach.

SDSU BY THE NUMBERS

In its 123-year history, South Dakota State has grown from a campus of 80 acres in 1881 to a 271-acre campus with facilities worth more than $220 million.

The university owns or leases another 15,000 acres for research throughout the state.

Recently, the Printing and Journalism Building — now named Anson and Ada May Yeager Hall — underwent a $2.1 million expansion and renovation project.

Other recent campus construction projects have included a $7 million expansion to Crothers Engineering Hall, the renovation of Solberg Hall and the building of a $9 million performing arts center, which opened in the fall of 2002.

A University Student Union expansion and renovation project is in progress and the Enterprise Institute located on the southwest corner of campus is slated to be completed this fall.

More than 200 majors, minors and options are available at SDSU with more than 2,500 different course offerings.

Master’s degrees are offered in more than 30 areas and doctorates are available in eight fields.

SDSU is accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and numerous departments on campus have earned accreditation from various agencies.

AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH

The university reaches all corners of the state through the Cooperative Extension Service and the Agricultural Experiment Station, offering service seeking to improve the quality of rural life. Also at SDSU are the Center for Innovation, Technology and Entrepreneurship; Engineering Experiment Station, Office of Remote Sensing; Water Resources Institute; Engineering and Environmental Research Center; Animal Disease Research and Diagnostic Laboratory; and Northern Grain Insect Research Laboratory.

These units help strengthen the university's growing commitment to research and support of state and local economic development efforts.

The Northern Great Plains Biostress Laboratory, which was dedicated in 1993, houses scientists who focus on research aimed at developing new technologies to protect crops and livestock.

SDSU also has been selected as one of five universities to serve as a regional center for the Sun Grant Initiative. The Sun Grant Initiative is a concept to solve America's energy needs and revitalize rural communities with Land-Grant university research, education and Extension programs on renewable energy and bio-based non-food industries.

Supplementing classroom instruction are the Harding Distinguished Lecture Series, the F.O. Butler Lectures, the Lusk Lecture and the Amdahl, Schultz-Werth and Griffiths endowments.

Students also have the opportunity to choose from more than 100 clubs and organizations active on campus.

MUSEUMS AND ATTRACTIONS

The educational opportunities don't end in the classroom or laboratory as South Dakota State University is home to several facilities, including museums and gardens, which highlight South Dakota history and heritage.

The South Dakota Art Museum, which recently completed an expansion, was first envisioned by the South Dakota Federation of Women's Clubs in 1949, and dedicated in 1970. The museum's collections include early Sioux Indian tribal art, the famed Harvey Dunn paintings of pioneer life and the exclusive Vera Way Marghab linens.

The State Agricultural Heritage Museum transformed the former Stock Judging Pavilion into a home for exhibits that record and preserve the agrarian heritage of South Dakota.

The 70-acre McCrory Gardens and South Dakota Arboretum, located south and east of campus, provide a beautiful setting for area residents and tourists to enjoy a stroll through the radiant colors and fragrances of one of the top small ornamental gardens in the nation. It is also recognized as an All-American Display Garden, one of only 13 in the nation.

In 1993 McCrory Gardens was designated an All-American Judging Garden to conduct research on annual flowers.

Since 1985, private contributions have made many new gardens possible including the Rose, Rock, Centennial Prairie, Iris, True Lily, Mum, Native Prairie Collection, Oak Tree Memorial Garden, All-Red Specialty Garden, Peony Garden, Shrub Rose Collection, and Children's Maze.

In August 1994, dedication ceremonies were held for the Mickelson Grove Memorial in honor of former governor and Brookings resident George Mickelson.

In 1982, the area north of the formal garden was dedicated to the planting and testing of ornamental trees and shrubs. The 45-acre site was designated the South Dakota State Arboretum in 1988.

The arboretum's purpose is to test woody plants needed to protect agricultural fields and livestock from the region's harsh environment, to provide hardy trees to shade our towns and cities, and to test ornamental shrubs for both durability and beauty.

The arboretum and gardens are managed by the SDSU Horticulture, Forestry, Landscape and Parks Department. More gardens and tree and shrub collections are being developed.

Perhaps South Dakota State's most recognizable landmark is the 165-foot Coughlin Campanile, the state's largest chimes tower. A climb of 179 steps leads to a panoramic view of the city.

The statuesque structure on the west end of campus was a $65,000 gift from 1909 engineering graduate Charles Coughlin, who later went on to become head of the Briggs & Stratton Corporation.

Coughlin laid the campanile's cornerstone on June 10, 1929. Since then, its chimes have called students to classes with the famous Westminster peals.

An alumni-sponsored project to restore the campanile was completed in the summer of 2001.

Adjacent to the campanile, Coolidge-Sylvan Theatre has provided a restful, green haven for students since its dedication by President Calvin Coolidge in September 1927.

Over the years the outdoor amphitheater has been the site of concerts, graduations and inaugurations for university presidents.

Woodbine Cottage, the home of the university president, is a charming example of Queen Anne architecture. Built in 1887 by South Dakota Agricultural College's second president, Dr. Lewis McLouth, the home is crowned by multiple roof lines.

The house also has served as a women's dormitory, music hall and infirmary.

STATE'S LARGEST LIBRARY

The Hilton M. Briggs Library, the state's largest, was opened in 1977 and joined South Dakota's statewide automated library network in 1988. Through the library, users have access to holdings from all 10 of the state's libraries, including official documents and more than 1 million other holdings at Briggs.

THE BROOKINGS COMMUNITY

Today, Brookings is a growing community of about 18,500 people. Located 20 miles west of the Minnesota border and 50 miles north of Sioux Falls in east-central South Dakota, Brookings is situated at the intersection of U.S. Highway 14 and Interstate 29.

The community also is home to several recognizable companies including Rainbow Play Systems, Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing (3M), Larson Manufacturing, and Daktronics, a leading manufacturer of scoreboards and display systems.
