For the South Dakota State University soccer program, the 2006 season ushers in a new chapter. After completing the program's second year of Division I play, the Jacks will rely on a young but veteran lineup to ease them into the United Soccer Conference.

"The players improved in every category of development this past spring and with the invaluable experience our young team gained last season, the combination of the two should provide a tougher, more seasoned group that will take the field at the end of August," said head coach Lang Wedemeyer.

Last year, the Jacks got off to a 2-2-1 start, drubbing Minnesota State, Mankato 4-1 to begin the year and downing Missouri Valley Conference member Northern Iowa 2-1 a week later. After holding the University of Minnesota scoreless Sept. 11, the Jacks dropped their next six matches, falling to the likes of Wisconsin-Green Bay, Oregon State, Oregon, Nevada, Drake and Wyoming.

SDSU got back on track Oct. 9 with a 2-1 overtime victory over NAIA power College of Saint Mary (Neb.). Returning junior Kelsey Worcester put the Jacks up for good in the match, netting an unassisted goal in the 95th minute. Following a 2-1 victory over the University of Montana Oct. 14, SDSU closed out its season on a high note defeating Murray State 2-1 in Murray, Ky.

"Our 2005 campaign was certainly a roller-coaster affair with highs and lows, good games and bad. To this team's credit, they have stayed the course and made huge improvements through the spring season," said Wedemeyer, who has directed the program since its inception in 2000.

The Jackrabbits garnered numerous postseason honors after finishing the year with a 5-12-1 record. Sophomore Kellyn Farrell was named to the all-Independent first team, while Olathe, Kan., native Chelsea Goosen earned honorable mention all-Independent honors after finishing second on the team in goals scored with four. Off the field, returning starters Heather Hill, Vanessa Paswaters and Maggie Eilers were named to the Independent all-Academic team, with Eilers later being selected to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District first team.

Defense

SDSU heads into its third season of Division I play with all four starters returning on the defensive side of the ball. With both Jenn Davis and Nicole Lograsso back in goal and Eilers, Kelly Larson and Kestyn Farrell anchoring the front wall, the Jacks have plenty of experience returning on defense in 2006 to keep opponents out of the net in their first year of competition in the United Soccer Conference.

Davis and Lograsso are back at goalkeeper after a 2005 season that saw them save a combined 89 shots on the year. Davis had a stellar junior season, starting in 10 games and earning Independent Defensive Player of the Week honors Sept. 27 after setting a new University of Oregon Pape Field record by recording 14 saves. Lograsso closed out her freshman campaign with an .734 save percentage after starting in eight games. The sophomore also picked up Defensive Player of the Week honors after leading the Jacks to a 2-1 victory over Murray State to close out the season. Lograsso, used a shutout in the first half and four saves in the second half to get one of her four wins on the year.

Eilers, a senior, returns for her fourth and final season as a starter on the defensive side of the ball after starting in 17 games last fall. She will team with Larson and Farrell, who recorded one goal and one assist last season, to try and improve upon the unit’s 1.79 goals against average in 2005. Add in senior Karoline Brause, who started eight games last season, and sophomore Alex Schaller and the Jacks should have a solid foundation in front of the goal.

Midfield

The midfield returns intact with 68 games of starting experience among returning starters Paswaters, Goosen and Kellyn Farrell. The Jackrabbits have talent to work with off the bench as well, as the Jacks return a trio of talented prospects in senior Janel Brown and juniors Heather Hill and Liz Lane.

Paswaters will look to improve on her sophomore season in which she recorded 12 shots, while starting all 18 games. Goosen will attempt to follow up an impressive 2005 season that saw her collect Independent honors, while Farrell could shine after gaining valuable experience with her sister Kerstyn this summer, winning the club National Championship with the Colorado Rush.

Hill, a Spearfish native, should push for more playing time this fall after starting six games in 2005, while Brown will give the Jacks a reliable force off the bench with over 50 games of playing experience heading into her senior season.

Forwards

With all three starters returning at the forward position for the Jackrabbits, SDSU should have several opportunities to put the ball in the back of the net. Back is junior standout Kelsey Worcester, who led the team in goals scored with five, while also recording three game-winning goals on the year. Also back are Erin Sakata and Erin Kasmarik, who both had productive first years in the program. Kasmarik, who switched from midfield to forward in the spring, could blossom this fall after starting in 16 games as a true freshman in 2005.

Newcomers

SDSU loaded up on young talent on the recruiting trail this past year. Rachael Tritz, a junior college transfer from Sioux City, Iowa, was a first-team all-America selection at Iowa Central, while South Dakota natives Jessica Heine and Diana Nuss will continue their careers at SDSU after earning all-state honors in high school. Chelsea Lira should give SDSU an added dimension upfront after finishing a stellar prep career at Leavenworth high school in Leavenworth Kan. Natasha Swift, a second-team all-conference selection out of Littleton, Colo., could figure into the picture for playing time as well.

Rounding out the class is Daniella Pappas, a member of Iowa’s Olympic Development Program, who will give the Jacks an athletic goalkeeper off the bench.

"We are looking for big things from this recruiting class," said Wedemeyer.

Schedule

Six home matches and three games against Division I postseason participants from a year ago highlight the 2006 schedule. Included in the schedule are matchups against NCAA tournament qualifiers Weber State, Wisconsin-Milwaukee and Creighton. Other key matchups include hosting Drake, Minnesota, IPFW and Texas Tech at Fishback Soccer Park.

"Once again, we have a very difficult schedule which includes Big 10 opponent Minnesota, Big 12 member Texas Tech, Missouri Valley regular season champion Drake, and three teams that went to the NCAA tournament last year. In addition to the tough schedule, it will be great to be playing in the United Soccer Conference and have a chance to play for a conference championship in November," said Wedemeyer.

SDSU will conclude its season in November at the United Soccer Conference tournament in Washington, D.C. All eight USC teams will be able to participate at the tournament.

The Jacks begin their season Aug. 25 against Northern Iowa. Start time for the match against the Panthers is set for 6 p.m. in Cedar Falls, Iowa.
Heading into his seventh season as head coach at South Dakota State University, Lang Wedemeyer has accepted many challenges and been rewarded for his efforts in establishing the Jackrabbit women’s soccer program.

First, Wedemeyer was presented the task of quickly assembling a roster. Despite having only six months from the time he was hired in February 2000 until SDSU’s first match, Wedemeyer guided an inexperienced Jackrabbit team to a 5-12 record in the inaugural 2000 season.

The next season, with a team which included 14 freshmen, Wedemeyer was named the 2001 North Central Conference Coach of the Year as he guided the Jackrabbits to a 13-6-1 overall record and a berth in the four-team North Central Conference postseason tournament. SDSU also appeared in the NCAA Division II Central Region rankings for the first time in school history.

In his third season, the Jackrabbits posted their second consecutive winning season under Wedemeyer’s direction by posting a 10-8 record. In 2003, Wedemeyer guided the Jacks to a 8-5-6 record, making it the third consecutive year the Jacks finished with a winning record. With a squad posting the fifth lowest goals against average in Division II, the Jacks qualified for the NCC postseason tournament for the second time in three years.

In 2004, Wedemeyer’s Jackrabbit team posted a 5-11-1 record in its inaugural season of Division I play. The Jacks took on 10 new opponents, with 11 of those teams being Division I schools. SDSU recorded its first Division I victory five games into the 2004 season, defeating Western Illinois University.
2-0 at the Diadora Classic in Omaha, Neb.

Wedemeyer’s 2005 team went 5-12-1 in the programs second year of Division I play. SDSU recorded Division I victories over Northern Iowa, Montana and Murray State. The Jacks also held Big 10 member Minnesota scoreless on Sept. 11.

Wedemeyer enters the 2006 season with a 46-54-9 career record, a .467 winning percentage.

In addition to starting the women’s soccer program at SDSU, Wedemeyer also has been involved in other aspects of the South Dakota and national soccer community. He is a National Soccer Coaches Association of America regional director, overseeing all the coaching certification in the Dakotas, Minnesota, Nebraska, Wyoming and Colorado.

He is currently an NSCAA National Staff Coach and regional technical director. He has traveled throughout the state conducting coaching certification and running clinics over the past five years.

In the summer of 2002, Wedemeyer added another title to his list of coaching credentials as he served as an assistant coach for the Olympic Development Program Region II 1990 Team, taking the team to a national camp in Houston, Tex. He was an assistant coach for the Region II 1987 Team in 2003-04, taking the team on a European tour. This past year he was selected from Region II to help evaluate and select members of the Girl’s Under-17 National Team at the Home Depot Center in California.

A native of Roanoke, Va., Wedemeyer was director of coaching and women’s coordinator for the Roanoke Valley Youth Soccer Club prior to taking over the SDSU women’s program. His three-year tenure as the club’s assistant executive director included overseeing all 28 teams and their coaches, as well as coaching under-18 and under-14 girls soccer teams. Wedemeyer also served three years as the director of coaching and under-14 Virginia Olympic Development Team for two seasons.

One of the youngest coaches in the United States to obtain all levels of coaching certification, Wedemeyer holds nine professional soccer coaching licenses, including a United States Soccer Federation “A” license and the NSCAA Premier diploma.

Wedemeyer began his collegiate playing career at Virginia Tech University, where he was the voted the Hokies’ best defensive player two years in a row. He later transferred to Old Dominion University (Va.), where he captained the team and earned second-team academic All-America honors in 1994. He earned a bachelor’s degree in English in 1994 and added a master’s degree in sports management from Old Dominion in 1996.

While pursuing his master’s degree, Wedemeyer served three years as an assistant coach for the Old Dominion men’s soccer program. In addition, his coaching experience consists of appearances at several soccer camps and clinics, including serving as head counselor of the University of North Carolina Women’s Soccer Camp since 1995.

Wedemeyer also has extensive professional playing experience in the United Soccer Leagues. He played three years for his hometown Roanoke Wrath before playing with the Sioux Falls Spitfire at the beginning of the team’s first season in 2001.

He and his wife, Tabitha, their son, Brooks, and their infant daughter, Isabella, reside in Brookings.

2005-06 Review
2005 Season Review

“The players improved in every category of development this past spring and with the invaluable experience our young team gained last season, the combination of the two should provide a tougher, more seasoned group that will take the field at the end of August,” said head coach Lang Wedemeyer.

Last year, the Jacks got off to a 2-2-1 start, drubbing Minnesota State, Mankato 4-1 to begin the year and downing Missouri Valley Conference member Northern Iowa 2-1 a week later. After holding the University of Minnesota scoreless Sept. 11, the Jacks dropped their next six matches, falling to the likes of Wisconsin-Green Bay, Oregon State, Oregon, Nevada, Drake and Wyoming.

SDSU got back on track Oct. 9 with a 2-1 overtime victory over NAIA power College of Saint Mary (Neb.). Returning junior Kelsey Worcester put the Jacks up for good in the match, netting an unassisted goal in the 95th minute. Following a 2-1 victory over the University of Montana Oct. 14, SDSU closed out its season on a high note defeating Murray State 2-1 in Murray, Ky.

“Our 2005 campaign was certainly a roller-coaster affair with highs and lows, good games and bad. To this team’s credit, they have stayed the course and made huge improvements through the spring season,” said Wedemeyer, who has directed the program since its inception in 2000.

The Jackrabbits garnered numerous postseason honors after finishing the year with a 5-12-1 record. Sophomore Kellyn Farrell was named to the all-Independent first team, while Olathe, Kan., native Chelsea Goosen earned honorable mention all-Independent honors after finishing second on the team in goals scored with four. Off the field, returning starters Heather Hill, Vanessa Paswaters and Maggie Eilers were named to the Independent all-Academic team, with Eilers later being selected to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District first team.

UNITED SOCCER CONFERENCE TO EXPAND IN 2006

The United Soccer Conference will grow by two teams in 2006 with new divisional alignment. The USC has granted membership to North Dakota State and South Dakota State, which will bring the number of teams in the conference to eight.

The United Soccer Conference West Division will be comprised of North and South Dakota State, Utah Valley State, and 2005 USC Champion IPFW.

The United Soccer Conference East Division will see Delaware State shift from the west, to join Howard University, Longwood University, and South Carolina State.

South Dakota State ended 2005 at 5-12-1. Coach Lang Wedemeyer’s Jackrabbits will not lose a player to graduation in 2006 and will return forward Kelsey Worcester, who led the South Dakota State offense with 12 points. “The invitation to join the United Soccer Conference has thrilled not only the soccer program, but the entire athletic department,” Coach Wedemeyer added. “It looks like thing will only get stronger, and we are excited to be a part of this great conference.”

“The USC is proud to add North Dakota State and South Dakota State to our conference,” USC Commissioner Mark Pope said. “After only its first year of existence, the conference has now increased to eight outstanding institutions, and we look forward to future growth. This expansion symbolizes the increasing interest in women’s collegiate soccer across the nation.”

FARRELL AND GOOSEN CHOSEN ALL-INDEPENDENT
Two South Dakota State University soccer players were honored on the 2005 Division I All-Independent Soccer Team.

Leading the way for the Jackrabbits was first-team selection Kellyn Farrell. Farrell, a freshman defender from Littleton, Colo., recorded two goals and two assists on the year from her defensive position. Farrell, who started all 18 games for the Jacks this fall, was third on the team in shots-on-goal with 10 and tied for the team lead in assists with two.

Earning honorable mention all-independent honors was freshman Chelsea Goosen. Goosen a midfielder from Olathe, Kan., was second on the team in goals scored with four. She also recorded one game-winner on the year. Goosen had three straight games with a goal against Minnesota State, Mankato, Creighton and Northern Iowa. She finished the year with a .652 shots-on-goal percentage. Goosen ranked ninth overall in goals scored for Independents.

THREE JACKS CHOSEN TO INDEPENDENT ALL-ACADEMIC TEAM
South Dakota State University soccer players Maggie Eilers, Heather Hill and Vanessa Paswaters were honored for their academic accomplishments. The three soccer standouts were named to the Division I Independent Soccer All-Academic Team.

Eilers, a junior from Brookings, was named to the independent squad after compiling a 3.95 GPA in nursing. Eilers, a three-year starting defender for the Jacks, has played in all but one of the team’s games during her collegiate career. Hill, a sophomore forward from Spearfish, was named to the independent squad after compiling a 3.46 GPA in pre-medicine. She was third on the team in shots taken with 20, while ranking fourth on the squad in shots-on-goal with eight.

Paswaters finished her second year as a starting midfielder for the Jackrabbits. The sophomore from Longmont, Colo., was named to the squad after compiling a 3.71 GPA in pre-economics. Paswaters started all 18 games for the Jackrabbits this fall and helped anchor a defense that held opponents to a 1.79 goals against average.

“Being a part of SDSU athletics was an amazing experience. It was a great challenge. Soccer assisted me in understanding the importance of time management and how to constructively and positively deal with adversity in life. Having been a part of SDSU’s athletic program definitely helped shape me into the person I am today, I wouldn’t have changed a thing.”

“Playing soccer, while attending college at SDSU, transformed me in all aspects of my life. I grew as a person, not only physically, but also mentally, emotionally and spiritually. It taught me how to work with others on a team, overcome adversity, be accountable for my mistakes and persevere.”

“The most important thing I gained from playing soccer at South Dakota State was respect. Not only were we facing our inaugural season, but most of us had never met, let alone played together. The odds were definitely against us. We managed to pull off five victories that first year, letting others know that the Jacks were here and ready to fight. In the end the respect was felt from our school, our division and most importantly from ourselves.”

- Stephanie Piorier Neeser (2000)
“Everything I learned while playing soccer for SDSU, both on and off the field, can be applied to life. It was truly an amazing experience that will stay with me forever.”

“Playing soccer at SDSU has had a great impact on my life. It has enabled me to juggle a full schedule as both a student and an athlete. It has also taught me self discipline, how to work as part of a team and how to be accountable for my actions both on and off the field. Having the opportunity to play soccer at this level is something I have always dreamed of and something that I will never forget.”

- Karoline Brause (2006 Senior)

“In their short time in DI, North Dakota State and South Dakota State are both recruiting nicely and will move quickly to the top of this league before their schools find permanent conference affiliation.”

“Playing soccer for SDSU has definitely developed my perspective on respect, responsibility and leadership. I have learned to dedicate myself to something and stick with it through adversity. My teammates are my best friends and the trust and respect I have for them will eventually branch into my future as I have co-workers whom I need to trust, respect and work well with. Through SDSU I have learned problem solving skills and people skills which relate to real life situations. I have also learned to become a role model for my team and the community because of the recognition of being a Division I player.”

South Dakota State University

This is SDSU
With a record enrollment of 11,021 students in the fall of 2005, South Dakota State University is the state’s largest institution of higher education.

EARLY HISTORY

Located in Brookings, SDSU was authorized in 1881 by the Territorial Legislative Assembly and serves as the state’s land-grant institution. Territorial Council member John O’Brien Scobey, failing to obtain the penitentiary for Brookings, managed to secure Dakota Agricultural College for his city.

Although allocations fell short of the actual cost, the school was able to open in the fall of 1884 because the president, George Lilley, was willing to advance $500 — one-third of his salary — to finish three rooms in the new Central Building. “Old Central” was soon joined by South (1885) and North (1887), forming the nucleus of campus for a decade and a half.

During the first year of operation, only preparatory classes were held. College classes started in 1885 with five teachers, 17 freshman and 61 preparatory students. Growth was slow and erratic for many years, but by the turn of the 20th century there were 242 students. By 1990, SDSU had an enrollment of more than 9,000 students.

Nearly 50,000 degrees have been granted since the college was chartered in 1881.

COLLEGES ESTABLISHED

The structure of the college became more complex as enrollments increased. The first nine chairs of instruction established in 1884 included agriculture, science, mathematics, English, modern languages, military tactics, veterinary science, practical business, political and domestic economy, and music.

By 1907, the year the name of the institution was changed to South Dakota State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, there were 22 departments on campus.

Reorganization into the five divisions which formed the basis for the designation of colleges was completed under President Charles W. Pugsley in 1923.

In 1964, when “State College” was renamed South Dakota State University, there were six colleges; today degrees are offered through these eight colleges:

- Agriculture and Biological Sciences
- Arts and Science
- Education and Counseling
- Engineering
- Family and Consumer Sciences
- General Studies & Outreach Programs
- Nursing
- Pharmacy
- Graduate School

SDSU also offers degree programs through the Sioux Falls Center for Public Higher Outreach.
Education (USDSU). Evening, RDTN, Internet and off-campus courses are coordinated through the Office of Academic Affairs and Outreach.

SDSU BY THE NUMBERS

In its 125-year history, South Dakota State has grown from a campus of 80 acres in 1881 to a 271-acre campus with facilities worth more than $220 million.

The university owns or leases another 15,000 acres for research throughout the state.

A University Student Union expansion and renovation project was completed in the summer of 2005, as was Caldwell Hall, a suite-style residence hall.

Other recent building projects have included:

- Anson and Ada May Yeager Hall (formerly the Printing and Journalism Building), which underwent a $2.1 million expansion and renovation project;
- Crothers Engineering Hall — $7 million expansion;
- Solberg Hall — multi-million dollar renovation;
- Performing Arts Center — $9 million project completed in fall of 2002.

In addition, the Enterprise Institute building, which also houses the SDSU Foundation, was completed in the fall of 2004. The Enterprise Institute is designed to facilitate SDSU and industry resources to encourage and assist the establishment of entrepreneurial growth enterprises in the region.

More than 200 majors, minors and options (see listing on pages 58-59) are available at SDSU with more than 2,500 different course offerings.

Master’s degrees are offered in more than 30 areas and doctorates are available in eight fields.

SDSU is accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and numerous departments on campus have earned accreditation from various agencies.

AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH

The university reaches all corners of the state through the Cooperative Extension Service and the Agricultural Experiment Station, offering service seeking to improve the quality of rural life. Also at SDSU are the Center for Innovation, Technology and Entrepreneurship; Engineering Experiment Station, Office of Remote Sensing; Water Resources Institute; Engineering and Environmental Research Center; Animal Disease Research and Diagnostic Laboratory; and Northern Grain Insect Research Laboratory.

These units help strengthen the university’s growing commitment to research and support of state and local economic development efforts.

The Northern Great Plains Biostress Laboratory, which was dedicated in 1993, houses scientists who focus on research aimed at developing new technologies to protect crops and livestock.

SDSU also has been selected as one of five universities to serve as a regional center for the Sun Grant Initiative. The Sun Grant Initiative is a concept to solve America’s energy needs and revitalize rural communities with Land-Grant university research, education and Extension programs on renewable energy and bio-based non-food industries.

Supplementing classroom instruction are the Harding Distinguished Lecture Series, the F.O. Butler Lectures, the Lusk Lecture and the Amdahl, Schultz-Werth and Griffiths endowments.

Students also have the opportunity to choose from more than 200 clubs and organizations active on campus.
MUSEUMS AND ATTRACTIONS
The educational opportunities don't end in the classroom or laboratory as South Dakota State University is home to several facilities, including museums and gardens, which highlight South Dakota history and heritage.

The South Dakota Art Museum, which recently completed an expansion, was first envisioned by the South Dakota Federation of Women’s Clubs in 1949, and dedicated in 1970. The museum’s collections include early Sioux Indian tribal art, the famed Harvey Dunn paintings of pioneer life and the exclusive Vera Way Marghab linens.

The State Agricultural Heritage Museum transformed the former Stock Judging Pavilion into a home for exhibits that record and preserve the agrarian heritage of South Dakota.

The 70-acre McCrory Gardens and South Dakota Arboretum, located south and east of campus, provide a beautiful setting for area residents and tourists to enjoy a stroll through the radiant colors and fragrances of one of the top 10 small ornamental gardens in the nation. It is also recognized as an All-American Display Garden, one of only 13 in the nation.

In 1993 McCrory Gardens was designated an All-American Judging Garden to conduct research on annual flowers.

Since 1985, private contributions have made many new gardens possible including the Rose, Rock, Centennial Prairie, Iris, True Lily, Mum, Native Prairie Collection, Oak Tree Memorial Garden, All-Red Specialty Garden, Peony Garden, Shrub Rose Collection, and Children’s Maze.

In August 1994, dedication ceremonies were held for the Mickelson Grove Memorial in honor of former governor and Brookings resident George Mickelson.

In 1982, the area north of the formal garden was dedicated to the planting and testing of ornamental trees and shrubs. The 45-acre site was designated the South Dakota State Arboretum in 1988.

The arboretum’s purpose is to test woody plants needed to protect agricultural fields and livestock from the region’s harsh environment, to provide hardy trees to shade our towns and cities, and to test ornamental shrubs for both durability and beauty.

The arboretum and gardens are managed by the SDSU Horticulture, Forestry, Landscape and Parks Department. More gardens and tree and shrub collections are being developed.

Perhaps South Dakota State’s most recognizable landmark is the 165-foot Coughlin Campanile, the state’s largest chimes tower. A climb of 179 steps leads to a panoramic view of the city.

The statuesque structure on the west end of campus was a $65,000 gift from 1909 engineering graduate Charles Coughlin, who later went on to become head of the Briggs & Stratton Corporation.

Coughlin laid the campanile’s cornerstone on June 10, 1929. Since then, its chimes have called students to classes with the famous Westminster peals.

An alumni-sponsored project to restore the campanile was completed in the summer of 2001.

Over the years the Sylvan Theatre has

EVOLUTION OF A NICKNAME
There are two theories as to how and why the Jackrabbit nickname evolved. The most common belief is that the name “Jackrabbits” came from a story and cartoon sketch that appeared in a Minneapolis newspaper following a 1905 football game between the University of Minnesota and South Dakota State College, as the university was then known. A reporter for the newspaper, knowing of the preponderance of jackrabbits in the Brookings area, was believed to have written that the SDSC team was as quick as jackrabbits. Many people believe that the school adopted the Jackrabbits as its official nickname from that beginning.

The other theory about the origin of the nickname is given in The Jackrabbit, SDSU’s yearbook. There is a poem in the 1907 yearbook that puts forth the idea that the yearbook is called The Jackrabbit because a group of juniors wished to immortalize themselves by changing the name of the yearbook. Athletic teams followed suit, adopting the nickname.

Prior to the adoption of the Jackrabbit nickname, school athletic teams were known as the Barn Yard Cadets as SDSU was known as South Dakota State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts in 1907.
been the site of concerts, graduations and inaugurations for university presidents.

Woodbine Cottage, the home of the university president, is a charming example of Queen Anne architecture. Built in 1887 by South Dakota Agricultural College’s second president, Dr. Lewis McLouth, the home is crowned by multiple roof lines.

The house also has served as a women’s dormitory, music hall and infirmary.

STATE’S LARGEST LIBRARY

The Hilton M. Briggs Library, the state’s largest, was opened in 1977 and joined South Dakota’s statewide automated library network in 1988. Through the library, users have access to holdings from all 10 of the state’s libraries, including official documents and more than 1 million other holdings at Briggs.

THE BROOKINGS COMMUNITY

Today, Brookings is a growing community of about 18,500 people. Located 20 miles west of the Minnesota border and 50 miles north of Sioux Falls in east-central South Dakota, Brookings is situated at the intersection of U.S. Highway 14 and Interstate 29.

The community also is home to several recognizable companies including Rainbow Play Systems, Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing (3M), Larson Manufacturing, and Daktronics.

Dr. Peggy Gordon Miller became South Dakota State University’s 18th president on January 1, 1998, following the retirement of Robert T. Wagner. Before becoming president of SDSU, Miller was a senior fellow and acting vice president for Academic and International Programs at the American Association of State Colleges and Universities in Washington, D.C. She has extensive collegiate education leadership experience at The University of Akron, where she served as president from 1992 to 1996, and Indiana University Northwest, where she served as chancellor from 1983 to 1992. Miller earned her doctorate in secondary education from Indiana University, her master’s degree in English and secondary education from Northwestern University, and her bachelor’s degree from Transylvania University. She taught high school in Gary, Indiana, and moved into various teaching and administrative positions in the Indiana University system. Miller recently announced she will retire Dec. 31, 2006.

Dr. Fred Oien became the 11th director of athletics at South Dakota State University on July 1, 1990. Oien earned his bachelor’s degree at SDSU in 1972 and has been on the SDSU staff since 1979, serving as athletic business/ticket manager from 1981 until his appointment as director of athletics. Oien is a 1968 graduate of Baltic (S.D.) High School. He added a master’s degree at SDSU in 1975, then completed his doctorate (Ed.D) at the University of Massachusetts-Amherst in 1979.

Oien taught physical education and health at the Brookings Middle School from 1973-76, during which time he was varsity golf coach for both boys and girls, and middle school basketball and football coach. His golf teams won state championships for both boys and girls. Oien also was women’s golf coach at SDSU, guiding the Jackrabbits to one North Central Conference championship. The SDSU women’s golf team of 1982 was voted South Dakota Women’s College Team of the Year.

Nancy Neiber became South Dakota State University’s first senior woman administrator for athletics when she stepped down as head women’s basketball coach in June 2000. Her duties include sport supervision, fund-raising, public relations, overseeing student-athlete programs and instruction in HPER academic programs.

The winningest basketball coach in SDSU history with a 301-140 record, Neiber coached the Jackrabbits for 16 seasons (1984-2000) and led SDSU to 14 consecutive winning seasons, two second-place finishes in the North Central Conference and six NCAA postseason appearances. Six times Neiber-coached teams won 20 games in a season, including two 25-win seasons. She was named NCC Coach of the Year in the 1988 and 1995. In 2003, she was inducted into the South Dakota Sports Hall of Fame.

A native of Pierre, Neiber coached at both the high school and collegiate levels in South Dakota. A 1969 graduate of Black Hills State, Neiber’s previous collegiate coaching experience was as a graduate assistant at SDSU and as an assistant coach at Dakota State.

Dr. Mylo Hellickson has been South Dakota State University’s faculty representative to the North Central Conference and NCAA since 1977, and as such also is chairman of the Athletic, Intramural and Recreation Committee on campus. Hellickson recently returned to the classroom as a professor in agricultural engineering after serving several years as director of agriculture Extension at SDSU. He has been on the SDSU staff since 1969, serving as a professor in agricultural engineering until he was appointed as head of that department during the summer of 1982.

Dr. Hellickson’s specialty has been in the area of livestock structures and environment with recent emphasis on solar energy use in agriculture. A native of Belfield, N.D., he earned a bachelor’s degree in agricultural engineering from North Dakota State University in 1964, added a master’s degree in ag engineering from NDSU in 1966, then earned a Ph.D. in engineering at West Virginia University in 1969.

Hellickson was presented the North Central Conference Meritorious Service Award at the November 1990 meeting.
