THANK HIM ANYWAY

When things are going smooth
And you tote a lighter load,
Do you stop and thank the Father
For a smooth and painless road?

When your tears have turned to laughter
And the sky is blue above,
Do you ever whisper "Thank you Father
For Your tender love."

When you feel that you need no one
To help you through the day,
Do you still take just a minute
To thank the Father anyway?

This is a very good recipe for sweet pickles that keep indefinitely, stay firm and crisp, and can be kept in an open jar.
First day - wash and prepare 7 lb. small or medium cucumbers. Cover with a brine made of 1 pt. salt to 1 gal. of water. Let stand 4 days. Fifth day pour off brine. Cover cucumbers with fresh water and let stand 3 days.
Eighth day wash and split cucumbers. Add 2 c. vinegar and enough water to cover and 1 rounding Tbsp. of alum; simmer 1 hour, but do not boil. Pour off liquid. Put cucumbers back in jar; heat to boiling point:
6 c. vinegar 6 c. granulated sugar
1 oz. allspice 1 stick cinnamon
Pour over cucumbers. Let stand. Tenth day, reheat vinegar, pour back over cucumbers, and seal in fruit jars or will keep in open jar for quite a while.
