Abstract

The Native American Club stimulates interest in higher education among all Native Americans. The collection is composed of programs, flyers, and posters for events sponsored or co-sponsored by the club. Also included are powwow viewers guides and information on the club.

Historical Note

The Native American Club serves many purposes for its members. First, the club offers support and encouragement to its members. The club also provides awareness of self and a social outlet for Native Americans students attending South Dakota State University. The club participates in intramural sports and holds club picnics. The main goal of the club is to promote cross-cultural understanding and awareness among the student body, administration, faculty, and residents of Brookings. The club is open to anyone interested in learning about and sharing the heritage of Native Americans.

Contents Note

Conditions Governing Access

This collection is open to researchers without restrictions. The materials in the Archives do not circulate and may be used in-house only.

Researchers conducting extensive research are asked to make an advance appointment to access archival material. Please call or e-mail prior to visiting the collection and indicate as much detail as possible about a particular topic and intended use.

South Dakota State University supports access to the materials, published and unpublished, in its collections. Nonetheless, access to some items may be restricted as a result of their fragile condition or by contractual agreements with donors.

Copyright note

Copyright restrictions apply in different ways to different materials. Many of the documents and other historical materials in the Archives are in the public domain and may be reproduced and used in any way. There are other materials in the Archive carrying a copyright interest and must be used according to the provisions of Title 17 of the U.S. Code. The Archive issues a warning concerning copyright restrictions to every researcher who requests copies of documents. Although the copyright law is under constant redefinition in the courts, it is ultimately the responsibility of the researcher to properly use copyrighted material.
