ABSTRACT

The Prairie Repertory Theatre Records are composed of programs, posters, season ticket brochures, scrapbooks, and photographs from the plays, musicals, and revues produced by the group.

HISTORICAL NOTE

The Prairie Repertory theater was founded by students and faculty in 1971 after the relocation of the Oldham Opera House. The Prairie Repertory Theater was created through collaboration by the Prairie Historical Society and South Dakota State University in order to present a joint summer theater season. The Prairie Repertory Theater has worked to encourage theatrical talents in the community and continue the historic tradition bringing theater to the communities in South Dakota.

The Prairie Repertory Theater presents four plays a summer for a duration of six weeks a play at SDSU in Brookings and at Prairie Village near Madison, SD and recently celebrated their 50th year of theater productions.

CONTENTS NOTE

The collection is composed of programs, posters, season ticket brochures, and photographs from the plays, musicals, and revues produced by Prairie Repertory Theatre.
