SHORT COURSE OPENS WITH FINE OUTLOOK

WINTER TERM OF SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURE OPENS MONDAY MORNING

VITUM TO HAVE CHARGE

New Head Begins Work With Promise of Large Attendance For This Year

With the prospect of a record-breaking attendance, the School of Agriculture opened yesterday. At the time of going to press nearly 200 had been registered (Monday evening). From every part of the state word has come of young people who are planning to attend the school, so it is expected that accommodations will be taxed to the limit. A growing knowledge of the work of the school thru the graduates who have gone out seems to be the main reason for the great popularity of this course.

The North Building has been set aside as the home of the School of Agriculture, and it is planned to provide rooms for the students where they may study and spend their leisure time.

The faculty for this year is not changed to any great extent except that Professor M. W. Vitum succeeds Professor Stivers as Principal. Former students will be glad to learn that Professor C. R. Wiseman, Miss Nelle Kendall, Miss Carleton Sherwood and Mrs. Gertrude McKnight will all be back again this year. An unusually capable corps of instructors and assistants has been engaged and an especially good term is expected.

The course is of the same practical nature it has always been and a few subjects have been added to the curriculum. The men will receive thorough practical training in the judging of cattle, grains, and live stock, carpentry, blacksmithing, farm machinery, and concrete construction, beside a certain amount of military training and the usual academic work. The women will take up such subjects as food study and preparation, dress-making, textiles, and laundering, household problems, millinery, hygiene, physical training and the academic branches. With such courses offered it is not surprising that it should attract the young people from the farms of every corner of the state.

Frosh Enjoy Downtown Feed Before Saturday Dance

In spite of snow and cold, 101 frosh gathered downtown Saturday night at the G. A. R. Hall and had a chicken dinner, served by the ladies of St. Thomas' Guild of the Catholic church. Previous arrangements for serving had been made and the tables were attractively decorated with witches, pumpkins and other Halloween material. The Misses Irma Delaney, Marie Huntimer and Genevieve Noonan served.

After the dinner several of the frosh attended the college dance at the Armory.

Vacancies on Board of Control Filled

For the purpose of filling the vacancies on the Board of Control the sophomore and junior classes met on last Tuesday and the following men were selected: William Burdett for the Sophomores and Emmet Dye for the Juniors. These members will serve on the Debate and Collegian Councils.

PLEASE NOTICE

Faculty and students! If you have ever sung in the Messiah, won't you come and help us this time? We want this chorus to be one of the big features of the year. Accomplished soloists are being procured, but we need you to make it a success. We rehearse on every Monday evening at seven forty-five. Help the chorus, help yourself, and be on hand next Monday night.

MUSICIANS ANNOUNCE THE FIRST TERM SCHEDULE

Glee Club and Choral Union Will Give Concerts Before Christmas

Two musical events of importance will be presented by musical organizations of the college this term. The first will be the concert by the Men's Glee club, which is to be given Sunday afternoon, November 16th. On the sixteenth of December, Handel's "Messiah" will be presented by the Choral Union, assisted by the State College Symphony orchestra.

Miss Grace Wynn of the music faculty is directing both the Men's Glee club and the Choral Union, and this fact in itself is assurance that the entertainments will be of merit.

The Men's Glee club organized early in the year and has held several practices, showing rapid advancement under Miss Wynn's leadership. The organization is composed of some very excellent material and gives promise of being one which will rank among the best in the state and one of which the students and faculty of State may well feel proud. Twenty-five men of the college have enrolled in the organization and it is planned to maintain this strength during the year. Miss Marion Carlisle of the college music faculty is the piano accompanist for the organization. For the concert to be given November 16th, Miss Wynn is preparing a large and varied program, one which is bound to please all and which merits a large attendance.

The Choral Union is composed of singers both from the college and from the people of Brookings. The rehearsals of this organization have been largely attended lately, increasing encouragingly at the last two or three practices. The chorus will be one of the best which state has had the honor of hearing, and with Handel's "Messiah," which needs no introduction to the people of Brookings and a large share of the student body, as the oratorio to be presented, this concert should be one of the big musical events of the school year.

The recital to be given by the members of State college's music faculty will not be given until next term. This will be a big event, as State is fortunate in having a musical faculty of exceptional talent and ability.

Remarks on the Game by North Dakota Fans

"Flashes of speed showed they (S. D. S. C.) had it."

"The condition of the field prevented open plays. There was not much passing until in the fourth quarter, as the ball was too slippery."

"South Dakota State made a few gains by line plunges, also around end, but not enough to count. North Dakota mixed her style of play but made the most yards on passes and runs. Movable made some gains thru the line, but as a whole the line plunges were unsuccessful. It was all of the game a defensive game with the ball near the center of the field. Very few punts were made for any distance, and they were often fumbled by the receiving man."

"Several long returns were made from punts. Movable made a 40 yard run thru a broken field on a returned punt."

"Neither side was in danger of being scored on. Only once did North Dakota get a chance to place-kick, and this was broken up on the 25 yard line."

"Duerner and Movable were the star offensive players. Underwood and Peerson broke up several good South Dakota plays."

"Roberts and Dickinson were the ground gainers for South Dakota while Kempley and Stanton played great defensive games."

"The Aggies were outweighed, but made up for it in fight."

LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL DEFEATS WATERTOWN

The Brookings High School team defeated the pigskin artists from Watertown in a very much one-sided game on State Field last Saturday. The Watertown players seemed to lack coaching and put up a rather poor exhibition of football. Sundet and Morton played the stellar game for the locals. The final score was 47-0. A game with Huron High will

Good Crowd at College Dance Saturday Night

The College dance in the Armory Saturday evening was one of the best this season. Approximately 100 couples were present, including members from all classes. Music was furnished by Safford's Orchestra. Dean and Mrs. Brown and Miss Miriam Gerlach acted as craperones, with Clifford Peck, Andrew Allison and Harold Lawson in charge of the door. Previous to the dance Prof. G. E. Grant of Minneapolis, conducted a demonstration lesson in dancing with a class of 50 young men. Professor Grant organized a class during the evening, consisting of men from the college.

To date Coach West has received the following entries for the Mile and Furlong race which will be run on the college track fifteen minutes before the Hobo Day game: Orville Gerbig, S. D. S. C.; F. Clement, S. D. S. C.; Basil Irwin, Brookings High; Harry Forsyth, S. D. S. C.; Gilbert Tripp, DeSmet; Millard G. Scott, Artesian; August Legler, Redfield; Dorance Langley, Witten.

Pep Comes to Fore in Fine Shape While Team Tackles N. D. Aggies

Big Pep Meet Last Wednesday and Crowd Meets Train Monday Morning

The Old State College pep was very strongly in evidence at the special pep meeting called last Wednesday night by Cheer King Culhane and his staff. President Dalthorp introduced a new feature by having his student and faculty speakers give extemporaneous speeches instead of the usual prepared talks. The innovation proved to be a decided success if the speeches of Ladd, Safford, and Coach West may be taken as examples.

"Ruff" Jennings, who has undertaken the job of coaching the line, also delivered some very good remarks. "Big Tom" Thompson and "Swede" Hanson from down town, both members of former State college teams, helped much to instill the proper spirit of pep into the assembled crowd.

Each of the football men was called upon for a few remarks, and then a few short talks were called for from various members of the student body. The big sentiment brought forth in the evening's meeting seemed to be that "crabbing" should henceforth be considered as a lost art and that boosting should properly take its place.

Culhane promised the coach that if

DEMAND FOR RAZORS GOES DOWN SUNDAY

APPROACH OF HOBO DAY MARKS SUDDEN HALT IN RACE FOR BEAUTY

Facial foliage flourishes on the campus this week. As was announced in chapel last week the last shave was to be taken on Sunday before midnight. As barber Perkins did not have his shop open on Sunday this worked a hardship on him for he was unable to officiate at the last sad rites. He announces, however, that Saturday afternoon, Nov. 7, will be a big day in the barbering business, as he has twelve days to prepare for it.

Since the freshmen brought the boiler back to its parking space it has lain in disuse, but it is thought that during the coming two weeks something is liable to happen that will re-instate it in its old place in student activities, which is as it should be. Abstinence from shaving during the period preceding Hobo Day has become a tradition at State college, and the students this year are merely attempting to preserve the tradition as it has been handed down to them by former Hobo Day boosters.

The Day this year will be the largest student celebration in the history of State College, according to all indications. Alumni and other visitors are expected to make a crowd of several thousand rooters at the big football game with N. D. U. in the afternoon. The parade this year will be better than ever, and will be varied by numerous special and very striking stunts. All committees for the Day are working hard, as the results will show a week from Friday.

Special Train Arranged For Sioux Falls Game

A representative of the North Western railroad, in conference with Pres. W. E. Johnson, last week, gave out the much sought for information that State college would be able to have a special train to Sioux Falls on November 22, when the State team will meet South Dakota U on the gridiron. This train may be had if 125 fares are guaranteed.

There will be no reduction in rates, however, the regular fare of $2.64 being charged each way. The train is to leave Brookings at 7 a. m. and to leave Sioux Falls on the return trip at 7 p. m.

A number of the students are expressing interest in the recent demand for teachers in agricultural subjects created by the Smith-Hughes act. Positions open at the present time are offering good salaries.

RETREAT SOUNDS ONCE MORE ON THE CAMPUS

Echoes of "Retreat" and "To the Colors" Mark Resumption of Old Custom

Yesterday afternoon retreat sounded on the State College campus, and as the Stars and Stripes was lowered from the staff, the bugle sounded "To the Colors." This simple ceremony will take place every evening at 5:45 and should always be attended by all who can do so.

There should be no thought that this is a new departure in any way—during past years the flag was always handled well at State College tho three flags have had to last as many years. The new flag is up after much delay due to the overt acts of some who were perhaps not in the service and had not learned to properly appreciate the utter imbecility of their act.

Some persons ran an old rag to the top of the flag staff and greased the rope and pole so that neither it nor the flag could be lowered. The flag was finally lowered at the expense of five dollars, but due to the greasy rope and pole it was thot advisable to continue using the old flag for a time.

The new flag is now floating and everything is running smoothly.

Leonard Paulson Speaks On Boys Work Sunday

Mr. Leonard Paulson, of the International Committee, Y. M. C. A., Boys Work Department, addressed a fair sized audience Sunday afternoon in the College auditorium. Mr. Paulson had previously spoken to audiences in the various churches, so this, his main address, drew many people from both the city and college community.

Mr. Paulson dealt with practical phases of the Boy problem and cited numerous instances, where the Y. M. C. A. had been instrumental in helping youths settle their questions right. He said that it had been found that conditions were usually worse in college towns than in other places, the reason being that it was usually the poorest examples of college manhood that came in touch with the boys of the city.

Mr. Paulson stated that the time to lay hold of boys was in their teens, when they were in the most pliable and sensitive period of their lives.

An enjoyable musical program had been arranged and was given at the opening of the program. The first number was by the College Four, a male quartette consisting of Mr. Harold A. Safford, Mr. Gerhardt Oylce, Mr. Clarence Olson and Mr. Lawrence Olson. The next number was an instrumental trio, two violins and piano, by Miss Dvorak, of the music department, Mr. Harold A. Safford, and Miss Marion Carlisle, also of the music faculty. Mr. Lawrence Olson closed the musical numbers with a vocal solo, Miss Marion Carlisle accompanying at the piano.

This short musical program was a real treat to those present and served, with the address of Mr. Paulson, to make it a very enjoyable Sunday afternoon program.

STATE PLAYS AGGIES TO SCORELESS TIE

WEST'S MEN DIVIDE GOOSE EGG WITH N. D. PLAYERS AT FARGO SATURDAY

SNOW SLOWS UP THE GAME

Slippery Field and Slippery Ball Prevent Fast Work by Either Team

State College spilled the dope in Fargo last Saturday by playing the North Dakota Aggies an 0 to 0 game. North Dakota fans mentally had a score of at least 10 points piled up against State in the first half. As it happened North Dakota was lucky to come off with a zero on both ends of the score. Lucky breaks saved their goal line several times during the game.

State College played a hard conservative game, taking no chances on the slippery snow-covered field. West's new line combination was a stone wall. North Dakota failed again and again to penetrate it. Time and again they were thrown for losses. Only three times during the game did they succeed in making first down thru the line. State's splendid defensive caused the Aggies to resort to the desperate measure of passing a slippery ball on a cold nasty day. They were fortunate not to have been scored on thru a fluke. Out of the eighteen passes they attempted only four were successful and only one made a first down. All others were either broken up or intercepted. Salisbury succeeded in returning one 12 yards.

State College resorted to the kicking game. Only once did the ball get within their twenty yard line. Twice the Aggies attempted to place-kick but both attempts resulted in failures. Kempley, State's star center, blocked the first. The second was hurried so that Duerner, who held the ball had to throw his body over it. Time and again State got into North Dakota's danger zone. Fumbles because of the wet ball or penalties kept them from scoring.

Roberts, left half, did unusual work in returning punts and skirting the North Dakota ends. Dickinson, Walseth, and Willadson, who replaced "Bus" in the second half, did splendid work in the interference. McCain, State's little quarter, opened the game with offensive tactics. Several times he plugged the center of the line for 8 and 10 yard gains. Fairbairn replaced McCain when the latter was hurt. Fairbairn had more snap than usual and used good judgment in his punting game. Dickinson, State's punter, had plenty of time to get his kicks off and out-punted Movable, North Dakota's quarter and booter.

In the line "Red" Burdett, an old State tackle who had been playing end up to Saturday's game, did great work at tackle. With his running mate, Salisbury, he rushed the Aggies' kicks and passes and did not a little to keep them from scoring. Stanton, the big right guard, played a stellar game. Nothing went thru him and he opened huge gaps for his backfield men. Kempley played his usual game at center. He worried his man and the North Dakota backfield by his fine defensive and offensive playing. Lippert, whom West had shifted from right tackle to left guard for the Aggie game, played as consistent a game as ever. North Dakota had trouble to pierce the left side of the line. The State ends

"Boost for Hobo Day." It is about time that this little phrase becomes something more than a mere succession of words. The ban on shaving has already gone down and before long November 7 itself will be upon us.

All indications point to a most successful day this year but of course this statement is somewhat conditional. Hobo Day, 1919, will be a success if it receives the proper support. Will it get it? We think it will, but there should be more positive assurance. The publicity work is progressing in fine shape, but what about the actual program for the day? That is up to the individuals, or at the most, small groups of them. Let's have some real original stunts this year—something that will be in keeping with the proper spirit of State college and that will make Hobo Day, 1919, go down in the records as one of the greatest days in the history of the institution.

ACID TESTS

It is not at all original to say that cooperation will accomplish more results in fifteen minutes than knocking will in a week, but is there anything which comes nearer the truth than this statement?

During the past few weeks, it became quite a popular custom around the college to go about expressing dissatisfaction with various things in general and athletics in particular. Thanks to a certain ingrown spirit of sanity which persisted in spite of appearances to the contrary, this habit finally proved to be the source of its own undoing.

The pep meeting last Wednesday night may truthfully be called the turning point in State college spirit. Just what it was that accomplished this fact it is difficult to state, but before the meeting was over the old spirit of do or die had come back with a will. The talks given went straight to the point, with no attempt to dodge the issues, the cheering was real and not forced, but best of all the spirit of enthusiasm which was developed proved to be of lasting quality, the kind that multiplies and grows by leaps and bounds.

To show that this spirit of confidence on the part of the student body was not misplaced the team put up a great game last Saturday under very unfavorable circumstances.

So much for the team: They demonstrated the depth and permanence of their spirit last Saturday. Now for the Student body: They showed the stuff they were made of yesterday morning when they kept their promise of Wednesday night and met the 6:30 train. Considering the weather and the time of day, this could easily be termed the acid test of college spirit. We have withstood it. Now let's have some more worlds to conquer.

AN ERROR

Thru some error it was stated in last week's Collegian that the race which will be run on Hobo Day would be known as the "Tri-State Furlong." The race will be a mile and an eighth in length and should have been called the "Mile and Furlong Race."

State Y. M. Conference In Aberdeen Last Week

On Wednesday of last week there was held at Aberdeen a joint conference of the student Y. M. C. A. and the state organization. Heretofore the state conventions held have been attended exclusively by college delegations, but as the new state organization is now well under way, it was decided to hold a joint conference this year.

State College was represented at the conference by Guy Thelin, George Biggar, Carl Metzger, Ben Graves, Vernon Erickson, Wilbur Devine, and Alfred Nord. The entire delegation was invited to the Sherman Hotel for lunch by the Aberdeen Rotary Club. Mr. Hopkins, the State "Y" chairman, gave a brief outline of the work planned for the near future, stating that Sioux Falls had raised $250,000 for the purpose of erecting a Y.M.C.A. building and that Aberdeen and several other cities were seriously considering the same step. Mr. Leonard

Paulson, of the international committee, also gave a talk on boys work. The evening program consisted of several very good talks by men of the international committee of the Y. M. C. A.

ATHENIAN

The Athenian Literary Society had a real live meeting Friday night. There was a good attendance and an enjoyable time for all. Quite a number of enthusiastic new members were taken into the society.

The program for the evening consisted of the following:

Piano SoloFrancis Erie
ReadingVelda Clark
Vocal SoloOllie Tehon

The Society was especially favored with a talk by Professor Meinzer on some of his travels abroad. He gave a very interesting description of Shakespeare's birthplace, Stratford-on-Avon.

After the program a short business meeting was held, then the society adjourned for a social time.

Next Friday night there will be something special at the Athenian Hall. You'd better come.

THE FROSH ARENA

Tamers of fiery steeds to suckling infants, foxes and tangos beside the effulgent scintillations of the dance from Paree—such is the life of the recalcitrant frosh, all crowded into one short hour's fun, sport, and amusement. Verily, the alleged education of the younger gentry prospers apace.

The supply of sunbonnets has become a grievous surety to certain of the erring, while straws, dottle grip garters, and fringe festochs have at last come into their own. As a means of locomotion, baby carriages, wheel barrows, hobby horses and (?) barrels are a real success. Parasols, overshoes and baby bottles are much in evidence in these times. Overallers are too expensive.

The college boiler is slumbering fitfully. It will not be neglected. Maybe it will be there next week. A real Hargett band will surely be there.

DELPHIAN

The Delphians held their meeting in their new hall on the second floor of old Central last Friday night. This was the first meeting in the new hall, which has been recently tinted and fixed over by the college decorators, and when the decorating committee of the society get to work it will be the most pleasing looking society room on the hill. After an excellent program, including a few numbers by the Jazz Orchestra, which promises to be a world beater, an hour of games was indulged. The power plant had to be helped out by several wood alcohol fires and eventually everyone toasted marshmallows in the blaze. Several new members were admitted and the society is getting a good start this year.

A RIDDLE

The "libe" is the place for flirting,
The dorm is the place where we eat,
The front step's the place for fussing,
Where "good nights" are long and sweet.

The hall is the place for loafing,
The P. O. is famous, too,
And the lab is the place for working
When there's nothing else to do.

But there is one place on the campus
Whose like has never been seen,
Where frosh, senior, and sophomore,
And junior alike are green.

'Tis the mecca for wanting pilgrims
Both students and faculty,
When there's something they lack in
Their labors
No matter what that may be.

Matches, soap, dry goods, and jewels,
Cheap cloth, cotton, and pen,
Young men suits and bloomers,
Athletic supplies for the men.

Books, paper, note books, and razors,
Pillows, and tools.

Fight! Fight! Fight!

The State College Spirit

We are just as proud of the good showing our team made at North Dakota as we are of our big showing of Suits and Overcoats.

Get into one of our big Wintermoor Overcoats that are warm, comfortable, and just full of good style. You'll have more pep to get behind and help the boys who are fighting for the honor of old State.

We have a big showing of New Fall Hats, Caps, Gloves, Shirts, Underwear—well, to make a long story short we have everything in Clothing and Furnishings for young men who want the latest style and the best quality.

Y. M. C. A. MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN

The Young Men's Christian Association held its annual membership and financial campaign among the students, starting on Thursday noon, October 16, and officially closing on Friday noon, October 17. However quite a number of the men were not seen during this time and memberships have been coming in since then.

The campaign was planned in the following manner: A team captain was placed in charge of each division including each collegiate class, the Preparatory department and the Tractor school. Several men were selected from each of these classes to solicit members for the "Y". Each student had the proposition of joining and contributing to the Association put up to him, and he could accept or reject as he saw fit. The main object of the drive was to obtain moral and financial support for the program that the Association has put over during the college year.

The campaign was a success in every way and about two hundred members and over five hundred dollars in pledges were received.

It is hoped that a few men who have not yet been seen will be solicited soon. The Association wishes to express its sincere thanks to all those who have shown their sympathy with the purpose and ideals of the campaign by their membership.

Among some of the things that have been heard of but not yet seen, is the aesthetic dancing class which meets on Wednesday at 2 o'clock. The graceful members of this class are reputed to be of the male species. John Fairbairn, Laurence Lippert, Claire Willadson, and Walter Kempley have been suspected of belonging to the class for obvious reasons. Mr. Fairbairn even asserting that Miss Hjertaas herself is becoming jealous of his gracefulness. Like the proverbial mule, we are from Missouri.

The boiler turned over in its grave two or three times last Friday, yawned and stretched, opened its eyes in expectancy and then went back to sleep again. The cause for said signs of life on the part of this venerable old friend and sage of State college was caused by the gathering of a rather large group of green capped individuals at the main door of the Ad building with paddles in their hands and a grim determination on their part to paddle John Kneebone, for something he had said, the something not being just to their liking. Kneebone appeared and the spokesman (name unnecessary) for the green caps made known their intentions, right in the middle of their little speech a few upperclassmen appeared on the scene and after a few words, the paddles were thrown down and the crowd dispersed. No doubt before "old boiler" went back to sleep again, he remarked: "The frosh know not how lucky they were."

By 6:30 the last straggler had arrived and the "chow line" was formed about the fire. From the various sacks and pans a real supper was soon produced and the "hot dogs" began to sizzle over the fire. When even some of the most dainty appetites had partaken of "seconds," marshmallows were passed around and the fun continued.

Supper over, more boughs were thrown on the fire and as the flames leaped and crackled, the Senior Male Chorus, lead in several popular songs. Mr. Harley Waters, one of State's coming young singers, being chief chorister.

An impromptu class meeting was next announced and President Ladd then presented some very important business for consideration. This being completed, it was decided to return to the College and take part in the Pep meeting.

The Seniors have only a few months in which to enjoy each other's company, so are planning to break the monotony by staging frequent little affairs of this nature.

State Wide Educational Drive Opened This Week

This week it is the privilege of South Dakota to witness the opening of one of the greatest educational drives in the history of the country. With his headquarters at Sioux Falls, Fred L. Shaw, the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, in co-operation with the National Bureau of Education, is directing a drive, the purpose of which it is to reach the farthest corner of every county in the state. His staff includes eighty speakers, many of them prominent in state and national educational circles. The speakers are using nearly 500 automobiles and it is expected that during the three weeks of the campaign they will travel about 1800 miles each. They are radiating out from the four central points of Sioux Falls, Brookings, Aberdeen, and Pierre.

During the chapel hour last Tuesday, Professor Brady addressed the college students on the necessity of coming to a realization of the importance of this movement. The children of the rural districts of the state have not been given the educational opportunities to which they are entitled, and it is the object of the present drive to bring home to the people the real needs of the rural schools. South Dakota, altho the richest state per capita in the Union, now ranks twenty-sixth in educational facilities. This great discrepancy between wealth and provisions for education will probably be reduced soon if the first reports on the drive may be taken as an indication of what is to follow.

Seniors Roast Dogs In Jungles Wednesday Eve

Taking advantage of the good weather, the Seniors sallied forth to the pines, east of the campus, Wednesday eve, and proceeded to enjoy a real old-fashioned wienie roast. A roaring fire was built and so radiated its welcome to the gathering members that jollity was the word from the start.

By 6:30 the last straggler had arrived and the "chow line" was formed about the fire. From the various sacks and pans a real supper was soon produced and the "hot dogs" began to sizzle over the fire. When even some of the most dainty appetites had partaken of "seconds," marshmallows were passed around and the fun continued.

Supper over, more boughs were thrown on the fire and as the flames leaped and crackled, the Senior Male Chorus, lead in several popular songs. Mr. Harley Waters, one of State's coming young singers, being chief chorister.

An impromptu class meeting was next announced and President Ladd then presented some very important business for consideration. This being completed, it was decided to return to the College and take part in the Pep meeting.

played a good game and allowed no runs to get outside of them.

For the North Dakota Aggies, Peterson, left tackle, did work of especial merit. The only times that North Dakota pierced the State line, Peterson was called back to carry the ball. He also played the Aggies' strongest defensive game. Movald, at quarter, played a good game. He returned punts fairly well, besides, he had a good pass. At center, Latimer played a fair game, tho he did not equal State's center offensively. Hayes and Underwood played good games at end. They were weak in getting under punts, however.

A perspective of the game shows that State College had the edge on her opponents thruout the four quarters. State's defensive was superior. She used better judgment in her game, making North Dakota take the risks on her own shoulders and saving her punch for the time she got breaks kept State from scoring.

THE GOOD OLD DAYS

Carrol G. Green of the class of '19 who is at present at Pierre, sends the following interesting items taken from a copy of the Bookings County Press printed in the year 1886:

"The recent rain has replenished the college cistern. Water is plenty now.

"It is rumored that the young ladies will organize a broom brigade this term.

"Easter was observed at the college, especially by the boys, who utilized the steam from the radiators to boil their eggs.

"A mail box has been provided for the college mail. We now have a free delivery."
