1961

More Time to LIVE

Loraine Vilas

Mercedes MacKay

Follow this and additional works at: http://openprairie.sdstate.edu/extension_circ

Part of the Agriculture Commons

Recommended Citation

http://openprairie.sdstate.edu/extension_circ/595

This Circular is brought to you for free and open access by the SDSU Extension at Open PRAIRIE: Open Public Research Access Institutional Repository and Information Exchange. It has been accepted for inclusion in SDSU Extension Circulars by an authorized administrator of Open PRAIRIE: Open Public Research Access Institutional Repository and Information Exchange. For more information, please contact michael.biondo@sdstate.edu.
More Time To LIVE
reading list for 1963-65
STATE LIBRARY SERVICES

Books for study, general reading, or club use are available in the subjects of philosophy, travel, biography, literature, economics, history, science, religion, fine and useful arts. Reference service is available to individuals, clubs or schools requesting assistance with club papers, business information, debate, programs, entertainment, etc.

Rules and Regulations for Borrowing Books

Home Extension Clubs. The reading leader of any Home Extension Club may borrow 10 books from the current Reading In The Home list for club reading. These books are loaned for 1 month and may be renewed for another month.

Reading leaders may request books from previous Reading In The Home lists. Forty-book loans of books from previous Reading In The Home lists may be secured by reading leaders for club use. An application card or letter, signed by officers of the club and the reading leader, is required. A 40-book collection is loaned for a period of 6 months.

Individuals. Any resident of South Dakota may borrow books from the State Library. While there is no limit as to the number of books that may be borrowed, individuals are asked not to request more books than can be used at one time.

Books, as a rule, may be kept for 1 month. If there are other requests on file for them—then for 2 weeks. No fees are charged for the use of the books. However, books should be returned promptly when due, so that others may obtain books readily. No books will be issued to any person with books overdue until they are returned to the State Library.

Lost Books. Each borrower is responsible for loss of books or damage not caused by ordinary wear. Books cannot be charged to one person at the request of another. Requests for books should be signed in the handwriting of the person borrowing books. Return books to the State Library, 322 South Fort Street, Pierre, South Dakota.
More Time
To Live

A Reading List Compiled by Loraine M. Vilas
and
Mercedes B. MacKay, Director-Secretary
South Dakota State Library Commission
1963-65

TO PLAN FAMILY BUSINESS

Bailey, Emma ___________ Sold to the Lady in the Green Hat
America's first woman auctioneer tells the story of her unique career in a most entertaining style.

Bernard, Will ___________ Law for the Family
Written for the layman to alert him to legal pitfalls of everyday life.

Black Hillel ___________ Buy Now, Pay Later
Discusses credit buying in the United States and gives specific advise to the consumer.

Blaustein, B. J. ___________ How to Have More Money to Spend Useful advice on how to use money wisely—to stop wasting pennies that could grow into bank accounts.

DeSeversky, Alexander Procosieff ___________ America: Too Young to Die
The author of Air Power: Key to Survival expresses himself further on U.S. defense problems.

Friedan, Betty ___________ The Feminine Mystique
Controversial book in which the author believes that American women are kept from using their full capacities as homemakers.

Guild, Warren Redwood ___________ How to Keep Fit and Enjoy It
Helpful suggestions for adults aged thirty to sixty on diet, exercise, and enjoyment gained by keeping fit.

Shepperd, John Ben ___________ The President's Guide to Club and organization Management and Meetings
Author hopes that his book “will help to solve any headache anyone encounters in running a meeting or an organization”—Introduction
South Dakota Extension Service Circular 620

TO LIVE WITH THE FAMILY

Burnett, Dorothy. Your Preschool Child. This helpful book on home management of children, two to seven, covers play, party, and safety problems with many useful suggestions.

Dunbar, Helen Flanders. Your Teenager's Mind and Body. Companion to the preteen volume, the author discusses the development of young people from age thirteen to maturity.

Ilg, Frances Lillian. Parents Ask. Two specialists at Gesel Institute of Child Development offer sound advice to parents of children under ten years of age.

Jameson, Marshall C. Helping Your Child Succeed in Elementary School. This handbook offers suggestions on improving parent-school relations.

Spock, Benjamin McLane. Problems of Parents. In a consolidated version of Ladies’ Home Journal articles, the author continues common-sense observations on parent-child relations.

Strang, Ruth May. Helping Your Child Improve His Reading. Emphasis is on reading not as a mechanical process but as an enriching experience in which grasp of content is essential.

WHILE KEEPING HOUSE

Ballard, Ernesta Drinker. The Art of Training Plants. This companion volume to the author's Garden In Your House offers help in planning, pruning, and training of decorative plants.

Bishop, Edna Bryte

Fashion Sewing by the Bishop Method

The authors of The Bishop Method of Clothing Construction now feature alteration of ready-to-wear clothing, making sport clothes, and trimming for quality.

Bracken, Peg

The I Hate to Housekeep Book

The author of The I Hate to Cook Book now offers short cuts in every phase of house-wifery in a breezy style.

Bradshaw, George

Cook Until Done

A collection of unexpected recipes with firm, clear, and thorough instructions presented in a delightful style.

Chambers, Helen G.

Clothing Selection

The fashion guidebook covers the problems of dress for women, men, with reference to children's clothes.

Gabor, Jolie

Family Cookbook

The mother of three famous Gabor actresses presents 300 recipes from Hungary adapted for the American kitchen.

Good Housekeeping

Book of Cake Decorating

Information about cake baking, frostings, decorating equipment—for wedding cake, cookies, and cupcakes for special occasions.

Grotz, George

The Furniture Doctor

For the amateur craftsman, a practical guide to furniture care, repair, or refinishing with easy directions and diagrams.

Hatje, Gerd

Design for Modern Living

A practical guide to home furnishing and interior decoration.

Kent, Louise Andrews

The Winter Kitchen (Mrs. Appleyard's of Course)

As in The Summer Kitchen, this book stirs up menus and recipes for October to May with chatty comments on Mrs. Appleyard's family.

McCalls

1001 Questions on Sewing Answered by Meg Carter

Questions on sewing and fashion from wardrobe planning to seams, hems, and finishing touches discussed.

Pearson, Haydn Sanborn

Country Flavor Cookbook

The author sandwiches in some observations on country living between his recipes for cakes, pies, breads, stews, and casseroles.

Peck, Paula

The Art of Fine Baking

Good basic instructions cover recipes for cakes, puff pastes, cookies, tarts, breads, and coffee cakes.

Singer Sewing Machine Company

Singer Home Decorations Sewing Book

Drapery and decoration guide will be useful to the self-taught seamstress.
Tracy, Marian Coward

Parties from the Freezer

Recipes that may be prepared ahead of time, stored in freezer, to be ready on short notice as company dishes.

TO LAUGH A LITTLE

Beckwith, Lillian

The Sea for Breakfast

The author decides to make her permanent home in the Hebrides in this amusing narrative.

Cleaver, Nancy

The Treasury of Family Fun

A minister's wife offers helpful ideas for indoor and outdoor activities for every month of the year.

Coward, Noel Pierce

Waiting in the Wings

A delightful play in which the setting is an English home—The Wings—for retired actresses.

Espy, Hilda Cole

Look Both Ways

Author of Quiet, Yelled Mrs. Rabbit now humorously describes what happens when her four teen-age daughters go their ways.

Gilbreth, Frank Bunker

He's My Boy

The co-author of Cheaper by the Dozen shares the pleasure of a fifty-ish parent of a four year old in this amusing account.

Good Housekeeping

Book of Home Entertainment

Puzzles, games, and problems complete with rules and answers for family and party use.

Hanff, Helene

Underfoot in Show Business

This hilarious account, like McKenney's My Sister Eileen, will amuse the reader who finds the theater enchanting.

Hobson, Richmond Pearson

The Rancher Takes a Wife

The author humorously tells how his interior decorator wife, Gloria, adjusts to modern frontier ranch life in British Columbia.

Johnson, June

The Outdoor-Indoor Fun Book

A treasury of everyday games, family and group activities, party, and holiday ideas for children from six to twelve.

Lynch, Patricia

A Storyteller's Childhood

The reminiscences of the author's childhood are as charming reading as her stories for children.

Moody, Ralph

Shaking the Nickel Bush

With warmth and humor the author tells of touring the Southwest as a portrait sculptor. While regaining his health, he made a fortune.

Nagle, Avery Leeming

Kitchen Table Fun

Simple directions for games, tricks, and experiments using articles found in the kitchen.
Paul, Charlotte

And Four to Grow On

Further experiences of the author of Minding Our Own Business and the growing pains of her two sons, with the family newspaper, The Snoqualmie Valley Record.

Prouty, Olive Higgins

Pencil Shavings

Author of Stella Dallas writes about her childhood, family and career in this entertaining autobiography.

Wells, George Stevens

The Fun of Family Camping

This practical guide covers such aspects of camping as tents, stoves, sleeping bags, cots, cookery, packing, and traveling with children.

White, Milton

Listen the Red-Eyed Vireo

This gentle satire about the Olney Bird Watchers Club is delightfully humorous and prefaced by an Ogden Nash poem.

WITH HOBBIES AND THE SOUND OF MUSIC

Braddon, Russell

Joan Sutherland

Vivid picture of coloratura soprano who has triumphed as Lucia di Lammermoor in the leading opera houses of London, Paris, Milan, and New York.

Bremond d’Ars, Yvonne de

The Antique Dealer’s Tale

Author of In the Heart of Paris continues her adventures as a Paris antique dealer that reads like a magic blend of the real and make believe.

Harding, Bertita Leonarz

Concerto

Music lovers will enjoy this biography of Clara Schumann, gifted pianist.

Bick, Alexander Frederick

Plastics

School or home workshop projects in laminated plastics for chairs, boats, jewelry, etc.

Booke, Ruth Voorhees

Pressed Flower Pictures and Citrus Skin Decorations

Well illustrated guide to the revival of an art of a century ago.

Erickson, Janet

Block Printing on Textiles

A very complete and useful guide in preparing the block and printing for use on draperies, place mats, skirts and chapters on block printing projects for children.

Fort, Victoria Pearl

A Complete Guide to Flower Arrangement

A professional floral artist sets down the fundamental principles involved in the art of arranging flowers to suit various occasions.
Green, Marjorie Canfield. Gifts, Gadgets, and Glamour Instructions for 41 homemade gifts that are inexpensive, easy to make, practical, and attractive.

Ishimoto, Tatsuo. A Treasury of Driftwood and Dried Arrangements 100 new arrangements using weathered wood, dried materials, rocks, and other natural materials to achieve original effects.

James, Suzanne. Gifts from the Garden Ideas for arrangements, corsages, packaging, miniature gardens, and potting of plants.

Liley, Alison. The Craft of Embroidery Describes basic stitches, types of embroidery, and gives instructions for making them as well as developing original designs.

Loewe, Frederick. Camelot The libretto of a musical version of the King Arthur Legend based on T. H. White's, The Once and Future King.

Mercer, Eileen. Let's Make Doll Furniture Practical directions for turning odd boxes into doll furniture will be useful to older girls, parents, or craft directors.

Press, Fred. Sculpture at Your Finger Tips Simple tools are suggested for the beginner to be used in the dozen elementary sculpture projects described.

Seibel, Kathryn Holley. Arts and Crafts for Flower Arrangers Simple instructions, for garden club or homemaker in making ornaments, containers, stands, and other accessories for arranging flowers.

Travers, Louise Allderdice. The Romance of Shells in Nature and Art Discusses the history of and gives instructions for shell craft, including a list of shell shops and dealers.

Von Neumann, Robert. The Design and Creation of Jewelry Those who use this book will need to have some knowledge of the materials and procedures of metalcraft and jewelry making.

Waugh, Dorothy. Festive Decoration How to create displays from a wide range of materials for anything from an exhibit hall to a birthday cake.
West, Kitty
Hand Coloring Your Photographs
Describes materials and techniques for those interested in coloring portraits or landscapes.

Wilson, Erica
Crewel Embroidery
Complete directions for making sampler, choosing equipment, applying patterns, stretching, and blocking finished pieces.

Winter, Edward
Enameling for Beginners
Discusses, for the adult beginner, the techniques, materials, and designs for enameling over metal.

Zarbock, Barbara J.
The Complete Book of Rug Hooking
Description of the technique and advice on design, selection, and preparation of materials.

BEYOND MY DOORSTEP

Adamson, Joy
Forever Free
The author of Born Free and Living Free now completes the story of the lioness Elsa and her cubs.

Borland, Hal Glen
Beyond Your Doorstep
The urban or rural nature enthusiast is lured to the outdoors through this book to observe animals and plants at different seasons of the year.

Carson, Rachel Louise
Silent Spring
This is a controversial account, written for the layman, of the way man’s use of insecticides is changing the balance of nature.

Eberhart, Beth
A Crew of Two
An entertaining tale of life in Alaska during World War II when the author and her husband decided to stay there and make a living by fishing.

Frost, Robert
In the Clearing
In this collection of poems, Robert Frost restates his belief in nature, love, and the American heritage. Included is The Gift Outright, the poem Frost read at John F. Kennedy’s inauguration in Washington—1961.

Gibbons, Euell
Stalking the Wild Asparagus
Suggestions for finding and cooking 50 such wild plants as acorn, milkweed, dandelion, and wild asparagus.

Green, Vivian Hubert
The Swiss Alps
The beauty and atmosphere of Switzerland is described informatively for the armchair traveler and tourist.

Herber, Lewis
Our Synthetic Environment
A nontechnical discussion of the effects food additives, air and water pollution, etc., have on public health.
Hubbard, Wynant Davis

This is the record of life in Northern Rhodesia with the author and his young wife as observers of animal behavior.

Krutch, Joseph Wood

This anthology covers both the aspect of nature study and scientific observation.

Penden, Rachel

In this journal the author records several changes in nature, farm and neighborhood activities and other events in life on an Indiana farm.

Rich, Louise Dickinson

For all nature lovers and those who have enjoyed her other books, Mrs. Rich records her observations of birds, foxes, plants, and pets she has known over the years.

Roberts, Jesse David

This autobiography describes pioneer life in the Adirondacks including hunting, trapping, and preaching.

Sutton, George Miksch

This account of a summer bird study in 1958 by the author-illustrator of Mexican Birds is a magnificent picture of Iceland and its people.

Yglesias, Dorothy

The writer tells how she and her artist sister started the Wild Bird's Hospital and Sanctuary in 1928 caring for 4,000 birds in 31 years.

PEOPLE I SHOULD KNOW

Beals, Carleton

The story of Carry Nation, moral arbiter, at the turn of the century who opposed saloons, cigarettes, corsets, gangsterism, etc.

Browne, Elizabeth

The writer tells of her pilgrimage to Liberia, where her husband was killed in a plane crash.

Buckingham, Naida

Amusing adventures of a young woman secretary to an Arabian King.

Carlova, John

Biography of one who pioneered in the career of occupational therapy.

Cathcart, Helen

This biography of Queen Elizabeth from birth to 1961 emphasizes tireless schedule of royal visits, social activities, daily duties, and responsibilities.

Chapelle, Dickey

Unusual autobiography of a professional photographer-reporter whose career took her to the world combat zones.
Chennault, Anna
A Thousand Springs
The biography of a marriage—that of Anna Chan, a Chinese reporter, and Claire Chennault, American commander of the Fourteenth Air Force.

Clausen, Connie
I Love You Honey, but the Season's Over
A fresh view of circus life in which the author tells how she became a horse-riding, elephant-sitting trouper.

Dooley, Agnes Wise
Promises to Keep
The mother of Dr. Thomas A. Dooley writes this intensely personal biography of his life which reinforces the humanitarian message of Dooley's own books.

Earl, Lawrence
She Loved a Wicked City
The story of Mary Ball, a British medical missionary who served 25 years in a hospital in Tetung, China.

Fields, Alonzo
My 21 Years in the White House
Former chief butler, in a chatty, informal style, offers an inside view of the President's house.

Fisher, Welthy Honsinger
To Light a Candle
The personal experiences of over 50 years of missionary service and education in Asia reveal a person of spirit and character.

Geld, Ellen Bromfield
The Heritage
These are the daughter's memories of Louis Bromfield, whom she vividly presents, as well as other members of the household.

Godfrey, Jean
Genius in the Family
Those who like family life stories will appreciate this biographical account of Arthur Godfrey's two sisters which is focused on the native genius of their mother.

Hays, Elinor Rice
Morning Star
Full-length portrait of Lucy Stone is to be found in this biography of the nineteenth century American champion of women's rights.

Hickok, Lorena A.
Reluctant First Lady
A very personal account of Eleanor Roosevelt's activities during her husband's first campaign for the presidency.

Lucia, Ellis
Klondike Kate
A unique bit of Americana is to be found in this biography of a famous entertainer of Alaskan gold rush days.

Marx, Harpo
Harpo Speaks!
One of America's most sensitive pantomimists writes his autobiography from which a full portrait emerges.
Maurois, André
From recently discovered letters of the wife of LaFayette the author presents an interesting study of the hero’s family life.

Maynard, Olga
Bird of Fire
This biography traces the progress of the American ballerina, Maria Tallchief, from a shy young dancer to her international fame as an artist.

Michal, Mira
Nobody Told Me How
The light hearted experiences of a young Polish ambassadress (journalist) in London and New York where her husband was attached to the United Nations.

Murphy, Patricia
Glow of Candlelight
A successful restauranteur relates the story of her life and philosophy of gracious dining, and shares treasured menus.

Parsons, Louella Oettinger
Tell It to Louella
This autobiography is full of news of Hollywood, its films, stars, producers, and many others for the reader’s viewing.

Ross, Ishbel
Grace Coolidge and Her Era
This biography of Grace Coolidge covers her childhood, marriage, and life with Calvin Coolidge during the “roaring twenties.”

Rowles, Burton J.
The Lady at Box 99
The biography of Dr. Miriam Van Waters who became a leading authority on social work and juvenile and female delinquency.

Smith, Corinna Haven
Interesting People
The daughter of publisher G. P. Putnam, and wife of artist, Joseph Lindon Smith, reveals herself as interesting as the famous people she writes about.

Thayer, Mary Van Renssalaer
Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy
This biography of Mrs. John F. Kennedy covers the main events of the First Lady’s life from childhood to her first days in the White House.

Waite, Helen Elmira
Make a Joyful Sound
Joint biography of Mabel Hubbard Bell and Alexander Bell, inventor of the telephone.

Wallace, Irving
The Twenty-Seventh Wife
Biography of Ann Eliza Webb, the last wife of Brigham Young, reveals Mormon customs and rebellion against plural marriage.

Waterfield, Lina
Castle in Italy
The daughter of a wealthy British family, born in 1874, tells of her love affair with Italy.
Wechsberg, Joseph........................................Red Plush and Black Velvet
This biography of opera star Nellie Melba reflects the elegance of the Edwardian period.

FOR NEW HORIZONS

Anderson, William Ashley........................................Angel of Hudson Bay
This book is a tribute to the Watts, who worked to improve conditions in fur trading regions of Northern Canada.

Beadle, Muriel....................................................These Ruins are Inhabited
The author writes informally of himself and family as they adapt themselves to life in England when he was visiting professor at Oxford in 1958.

Blacker, Irwin R., ed........................................The Old West in Fact
This companion volume to The Old West in Fiction makes valuable reading for those interested in history of the West.

Borden, Charles A......................................................South Sea Islands
The author of Hawaii, Fiftieth State writes of the South Sea people as they are today in this lively introduction to the Islands of the Pacific.

Bosworth, Allan P......................................................New Country
The author tells of his childhood years of wandering with his family in a covered wagon through the Southwest in the 1880's.

Burman, Ben Lucien.....................................................It's a Big Continent
Author of It's a Big Country offers the reader an excursion to the by-ways of Key West, the Bahamas, New Mexico, California, and Canada.

Burmetz, Paul.........................................................Our Share of Morning
A sincere account of how a brave refugee family from Austria found freedom in the United States.

Calkins, Fay G..........................................................My Samoan Chief
Informal narrative of an American who marries a Samoan and raises her six children in a tribal village.

Carrighar, Sally........................................................The Glass Dove
Vivid details of Civil War days are to be found in this story of sixteen year old Sylvia’s activities in the Underground Railroad project.

Carver, Sanora.......................................................A Girl and Five Brave Horses
From diving act to blindness the author tells her thrilling story of courage and determination.

Cary, Joyce.........................................................An American Visitor
This novel about primitive people of Africa and their relations with a foreign ruler is a timely commentary of present day Africa.
Catto, Max ........................................................................ Mister Moses
A witty tale about a native African tribe driven from their home in the jungle by the building of a dam.

Cave, Hugh Barnett .......................................................... Four Paths to Paradise
Introduction to Jamaica, past and present, for armchair travelers, inspired by the author's visit with wife and young son to the Caribbean.

Chow, Chung-CHENG ..................................................... The Lotus Pool
The author tells of her youth in Shanghai and Peking after World War II and her great desire for an education.

Cloete, Stuart .................................................................... West with the Sun
The author tells of a freighter voyage taken, with his wife, in 1961 to Manila, Hong Kong, Saigon, and Bangkok.

Cottrell, Leonard .............................................................. Hannibal, Enemy of Rome
The author of Life under the Pharaohs retracts a trip he and his wife made by car over the route made by the Punic war general.

Dickson, Mora .................................................................. Baghdad and Beyond
The author-illustrator writes humorously her observations on daily life, social problems, scenery, and personalities in Iraq.

Deane, Shirley .................................................................... The Road to Andorra
The adventures of an Australian family who live for a few months in an isolated hamlet high in the Pyrenees.

Eggleston, George Teeple ................................................... Orchids on the Calabash Tree
An entertaining account of life on St. Lucia, a Caribbean island, where the author and family now live permanently.

Eskelund, Karl ..................................................................... The Red Mandarins
The Danish author tells of his return, with his Chinese wife, to revisit China in 1956 for the first time since the communist revolution.

Fischer, Bertha Mark ........................................................ Reunion in Moscow
In this sequel to My Lives in Russia, the Russian born author reports her return visit to Moscow in 1960 after an absence of 21 years.

Giles, Janice Holt .............................................................. Voyages to Santa Fe
The author of Johnny Osage continues her story of Indian trader Johnny and his wife, Judith, during an 800-mile trip in 1823.

Glaskin, Gerald M. ............................................................ The Land that Sleeps
Travel and nature enthusiasts will enjoy this account of a trip through Australia by car.

Hamilton, Virginia ............................................................. Everybody Duck
An entertaining account of a family whose travels to Argentina were made on a converted amphibious landing craft.
Hibben, Frank Cummings
_Hunting in Africa_
These adventure stories present the highlights of safaris in which hunter-author and wife have participated.

Hindus, Maurice Gerschon
_House without a Roof_
The author makes another report on his native Russia from a visit made in 1960 as compared to his impressions gathered from previous visits and from childhood.

Hudson, Lois Phillips
_The Bones of Plenty_
Memorable novel about farm life in North Dakota of the 1930's with excellent characterization in seven year old Lucy.

Jenkins, Robin
_Dust on the Paw_
Abdul Wahob of Afghanistan proposes marriage to an English woman in this novel of comedy and interracial marriage.

Kantor, MacKinlay
_Spirit Lake_
Vividly detailed novel about the American frontier centering around an Indian massacre of white settlers at Spirit Lake, Iowa.

Kessel, Joseph
_The Valley of Rubies_
The author makes this account of a trip to Burma, in search of precious rubies, read like an adventure story.

Kimbrough, Emily
_Pleasure by the Busload_
A typical Kimbrough travelog reporting the author's recent tour of Portugal by Volkswagen Microbus.

Lane, Margaret
_A Calabash of Diamonds_
A search for secret treasure in Africa made by the author, her husband, and nephew provides adventure and glimpses of the country in this account.

Les Tina, Dorothy
_Icicles on the Roof_
The author, wife of an Army flyer, tells of her life at a post in southeastern Alaska, with good sense of humor.

Levi, Carlo
_The Linden Trees_
Rewarding reading for those who seek an authoritative commentary on post-war Germany's divided nature and present crisis.

Lindal, Amalia
_Ripples from Iceland_
Lively personal account of the American wife of a young Icelandic chemical engineer and their life in her adopted country.

Machetanz, Sara
_The Howl of the Malemute_
The author and her husband spend a winter in Alaska filming sled dogs and enjoying a very social life among the Eskimos.

Maxwell, Nicole
_Witch Doctor's Apprentice_
The author tells of her experiences into the jungles of South America to collect native plant remedies.
Maxwell, William..................................................The Chateau
This story is about an American couple who visit in France, 1948—a portrait of friendly people and scenes in many sections of France.

Mercer, Charles E................................................Pilgrim Strangers
As in Rachel Cade, the setting of this novel is the Belgian Congo to which an American pilot has brought his three motherless children to live at a Protestant mission.

Mi Mi Khaing, Daw..............................................Burmese Family
This autobiographical memoir offers a charming and informative picture of Burma and its people.

Mosby, Aline..................................................The View from No. 13 People’s Street
A woman correspondent in Moscow, 1959-1961, gives her view of Russian life.

Nathan, Robert..................................................A Star in the Wind
More serious than the author’s fantasies, this novel is about a young American correspondent whose experiences in Palestine reestablish his identity as a Jew.

Polishuk, Nancy................................................Four Against the River
The author tells of pioneer life in the tropics of Australia as experienced by her husband, two children, and herself.

Sandoz, Mari..................................................Love Song to the Plains
The author describes her native Great Plains with anecdotes, songs, bits of history, and reminiscence.

Sivasankara Pillai, Thakazhi...............................Chemmeen
A fishing village on the southwest coast of India is the setting for this tragic love story of Karuthamma and a young Moslem trader.

Smith, Ethel Sabin..............................................Passports at Seventy
The author tells of her round-the-world freighter trip to prove that older people get more out of travel.

Stark, Freya..................................................Dust in the Lion’s Paw
A popular author of travel books tells of her work in the Middle East during and after World War II.

Telscombe, Anne..............................................Miss Bagshot goes to Moscow
An entertaining story about an elderly English woman who gets lost on a visit to Moscow.

Trevino, Elizabeth Borton.................................Where the Heart Is
Author of My Heart Lies South continues her experiences among her husband’s people in Mexico City discussing the problems of rearing two sons with a divided heritage.
Wolff, Perry Sidney. A Tour of the White House with Mrs. John F. Kennedy
Picture history based on the television program, accenting Mrs. Kennedy's efforts to make the White House a depository of Americana.

BEYOND OURSELVES

Barrett, William Edmund. The Lilies of the Field
A young Baptist Negro helps four nuns to build a chapel in this tale of faith, set in the Southwest.

Chase, Mary Ellen. The Psalms for the Common Reader
The author of The Bible and the Common Reader again makes Biblical literature more understandable for the general reader.

Fletcher, Grace Nies. I Was Born Tomorrow
The author of Preacher's Kids describes her beliefs and efforts to apply them at the death of her husband.

Janss, Edmund W. Yankee Si
The story of Dr. J. Calvitt Clarke and the Christian Children's Fund that feeds 36,000 orphan children throughout the world.

Marshall, Catherine Wood. Beyond Ourselves
Another "inspirational book" by the author of A Man Called Peter.

Miller, Randolph Crump. Your Child's Religion
A practical guide for parents to help in the religious education of children; with bibliography.

Morgan, Albert. Minor Miracle
The miracle witnessed by a small boy brings publicity to Father Britt's parish in this well-told story.

O'Neal, Cothburn. Pa
This story emphasizes the homely virtues of an eccentric Texas oil millionaire and five children who grew up around him.

Peale, Norman Vincent. The Tough-Minded Optimist
Autobiographical material on effective solution of personal difficulties and the role of the church in social movements.

Pollock, John Charles. Hudson Taylor and Maria
This account of missionary work in nineteenth century China has more than a religious appeal.

Read, Katherine Henderson. Bamboo Hospital
Account of Baptist missionary doctors in Burma, presented by their daughter, tells of their 40 years work among the Shan people.

Richter, Conrad. A Simple Honorable Man
This is the moving story of Harry Donner, father in The Waters of Kronos, when he answers the call to the ministry.
Sandburg, Carl

Honey and Salt
These poems are in the characteristic Sandburg rhythm, image, and form about love, landscape, city scenes, and communication.

Stout, Ruth

If You Would Be Happy
The author’s observations on the art of living are sensible and down-to-earth as in her It's a Woman's World.

FOR YOUNG ADULTS

Archibald, Joseph

Crazy Legs McBain
An action packed sports story in which Hal McBain, a college junior, wins football glory.

Caidin, Martin

This Is My Land
A book for the browser, the lover of photography, and small plane tourist of the United States.

Donovan, Robert J.

PT 109
Exciting account of John F. Kennedy's heroic exploits in the rescue of crew members in World War II.

Frierwood, Elisabeth Hamilton

Ballad of Calamity Creek
In this story for girls, Ann Todd changes her ideas about teaching in a Kentucky Mountain community.

Gipson, Fred

Savage Sam
Savage Sam is Old Yeller's son in the author's third story. Indian capture and escape predominate.

Guthrie, Anne

Madame Ambassador
The biography of Madame Pandit, sister of Nehru, will promote understanding of India.

Hibben, Frank Cummings

Hunting in Africa
Highlights of safaris in which the author and wife have participated.

Johnson, Annabel

Wilderness Bride
Motherless Corey Tremaine adjusts herself to Mormon communal life in this moving pioneer story.

McLean, Allan Campbell

Ribbon of Fire
The unknown identity of a traitor adds to the suspense of this story.

Murie, Margaret E.

Two in the Far North
Recollections of the author's experience in Alaska will appeal to nature lovers.

Noble, Iris

First Woman Ambulance Surgeon
The thrilling life story of Emily Barringer, the first woman to intern in a United States Hospital.
More Time to Live

Norton, Alice Mary

Good science fiction in which Troy Horan establishes communications with earth animals who help him escape to freedom.

Russell, Robert

To Catch an Angel

Blind author describes his struggle to compete in a sighted world.

Scholz, Jackson Volney

Halfback on His Own

An enjoyable sports story about Andy Baker and how he won his place on the football team at Florida University.

Shapiro, Milton J.

Mickey Mantle, Yankee Slugger

The biography includes Mickey Mantle's famous home run contest with Roger Maris in 1961 season.

Swift, Hildegarde Hoyt

From the Eagle's Wing

This biography of John Muir portrays the naturalist's dedicated efforts to promote conservation of America's forests.

Thubten, Jigme Norbu

Tibet Is My Country

The author tells of his boyhood and training in a Buddhist monastery.

Walden, Amelia Elizabeth

So Near the Heart

A sequel to the author's When Love Speaks in which Miranda Welch begins her career as a professional actress.

Wibberley, Leonard Patrick

Treasure at Twenty Fathoms

In spite of his feat, Chuck becomes a competent driver in this convincing story.

FOR CHILDREN

Brown, Marcia

Once a Mouse

Beautiful woodcuts, in this Caldecott award for 1962, retell an ancient Indian myth.

Carlson, Natalie Savage

Carnival in Paris

This charming story tells how Nelly and Marc kept the family and the animal circus together in Paris.

Constant, Albert Wilson

Willie and the Wildcat Well

A homesick boy finally feels at home in the oilwell country of Indian Territory days.

De Jong, Meindert

Nobody Plays with Cabbage

Jim finds comfort in his giant cabbage plant in this sad gardening tale.

Farmer, Penelope

The Summer Birds

A fanciful tale about two girls who learn to fly like birds.

Keats, Ezra

A Snowy Day

Caldecott award 1963. Striking pictures tell of a little boy's wonder over the snow.
L'Engle, Madeleine .......................... A Wrinkle in Time Newbery Award 1963. An unusual story about three children who search for their scientist father.

Little, Jean .................................. Mine for Keeps
An engaging story about a little handicapped girl who overcomes her fears at home and at school.

MacDonald, George .......................... The Light Princess
Gay, colorful pictures give charm to this new edition of an old favorite.

Speare, Elizabeth George ..................... The Bronze Bow Newbery Award 1962. In this story Daniel’s hatred of the Romans is turned to love by Jesus of Nazareth.

Paradis, Marjorie Bartholomew .................. Mr. DeLuca’s Horse
By earning, saving and close figuring, Brett solves a problem in this appealing story.

Stolz, Mary Slattery .......................... Pigeon Flight
Mr. Pigeon retires, with his wife, to the country and then realizes his mistake in this amusing story.

Unnerstad, Edith .............................. Journey to England
Two Swedish children, in a long search for their mother, are aided by many kind people including Jenny Lind in this appealing story.

Wibberly, Leonard ............................. Treegate’s Raiders
This is the fourth book about the Treegate family during the Revolutionary War.

Zolotow, Charlotte Shapro ..................... Mr. Rabbit and the Lovely Present
Full color illustrations match this story about what mother would like for her birthday.